.M. T. Cockreil. Circuit Court convenes, spring term, first Monday in April; fall term, first Monday in October. County Court convenes second Monday in every Guarteriy Court convenes second Monday in such, June, September and December.

> CITT OFFICERS. Mayor-William P. Coops.
> Marshal-Henry Johnson.
> Deputy Marshal T. M. Luman.
> C. B. Warbbington. Treasurer B. A. Wallingford. Arcasser-Ja. L. Hunt.
> Collector-Chas. H. Frank.
> Wharfmanter-Mike Brown.
> Wood and Coal Impector-Wm. Davis.
> Market Master-Wm. Edmonds.
> Alus Holus Keeper-Wm. Mills.
> City Undertakers-Stone & Collins.

MEMBERS CITY COUNCIL. President-Robert A. Cochran.
First Ward-S. N. Howe,
W. S. Bridges,
Dr. G. W. Martin.
Second Ward-J. H. Bains,
R. A. Cochran,
J. M. Stockton,
Third Ward-Dr. Jno. M. Dnice,
v. W. Suiser.

Fourth Ward—W. W. Pike,
Dr. J. P. Phister,
Geo. W. Tudor,
Fish Ward—J. H. Hall,
P. B. Vanden,
Wm. Ireland. MASONIC DIRECTORY.

Maysville Commandery, No. 10, Knights Templar
- Stated Convocation, 4th Monday in each month.
M. H. Smith, Commander.
J. B. Gibson, Recorder. Maysville Conneil, No. 26, Stated Communications, Tuesday after 4th Monday in March, June September and December.

Wm. P. Coons, P. J. G. M. A Billstine, Recorder. Maysville Chapter, No. 9, Stated Communica-tions, 3d Monday in each month. W. N. Howe, H. P.

J. B. Gibson, Secretary.

Confidence Lodge, No. 32, Stated Communications, 1st Monday in each month.

W. N. Howe, W. M. J. B. Gibson, Secretary.
Mason Lodge, No. 342, Stated Communications, 3d Monday in each month.
Geo. J. Hancock, W. M.
3. W. Alexander, Secretary.

Sardis Lodge, No. 186, Stated Communications, on, or after fall moon, in every month.

Jas. S. Bratton, W. M.
Thos. T. Dobyns, Secretary. CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Christian Church, Elder J. B. McGinn, Pastor, Service Lord's day of Ho'clock, a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School at 9 o'clock a. m. Prayer Meeting, Thursday 812 p. m.

Presisterian Church, (Synod) Rev. J. E. Spillman, Pastor. Services alternate Sundays at their church building on Court street, at Ho'clock a. am. and 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7 o'clock p. m. Sunday School at 9 a. m.

Presisterian Church, (Gen. Assembly,) Rev. Geo. W. Coons, Minister. Services alternate Subbaths, at their church building on corner of 3d and Court streats at 10% o'clock. a. m. and 7 o'clock. Sabcata school at 9 o'clock.

Baptiet Church, Dr. A. W. Chambliss, Pastor. Service Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday at 70 o'clock p. m.

M. E. Church, South, Rev. J. Rand, Pastor. Services Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m. and at o'clock p. m. Sunday school at 9 o'clock a. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday at 7 o'clock, p. m. M. E. Church, North, Ber. H. J. Perry, Pastor Sanday services at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. Prayer meeting, Thursday at 7 o'clock, p. m. Sanday School at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Church of Nativity (Episcopai) Rev. R. H. Weller, Rector. Sunday Services, at 10% o'clock, a. m. and at 7 p m. Sunday School, 9 o'clock a. m. Prayer meeting, Friday at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Catholic Church. Rev. Father Glorieux, Pastor. Services Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m. Sunday School at 2 o'clock, p. m.

Academin of Disitation.

OF THE VISITATION.

MAYSVILLE, EY.

This institute occupies a healthy location, commands a beautiful view of the Unio river, is conducted by the Sisters of the Visitation—an order founded by Saint Francis de Sales, in 1610—posses at the advantage of ample grounds, extensive an commodious buildings, and such facilities for execise and recreation as may conduce to the healt and happiness of its youthful occupants. Thourse of instruction comprises Orthography, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Ancient and odern Geography, use of Globes, Prone and Poet and Composition, Sacred and Profuse History, Mybology, Rhetoric, Criticism, Logic, Intellectuand Ratural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronom Botary, Geology, Mineralogy, Meteorology, Aigney, Geometry, the Language Music on Harp, Plano, Organ, and Guitar, Drawins, Pelpting, and Pishn and Grammantal Needle ork. For further particulag, and terms addressible for Contract Contractions. ork. For farther particula, and terms addre other M. Conters. Supérior a of the Academ Maysville, Ky. Feb. 9. '69.res wly

Wall Paper &c

1869.

WALL PAPER

-AND-

WINDOW SHADES JAMES SMITH Would call the attention of purchasers to and carefully selected stock of Wall Paper

Parlors, Dluing Rooms and Chambers Decorative and Column Papers for Halls, at great reduced rates.

Medicall

school fall, every kind of unsightly emption of the face, or technic, trrinning, or discose on any part of the person,

It has mostly enlighed me of that mostlying empa, and I am new tooking quite like a man," writes arise E. Noble, General Agent of hitch Central B. 173 Broadway, N. Y. We find it on invaluable remain for Tetter, etc., to Higgier Bros., Druggists, Fairfield, Iowa i have tried your calcule remedy for flarter as h with great success," writes C. W. Dumont, of amineter, Mass.

Send for circular. Price, 75 cts, and $1.00. Prepared only by SOLON PALMER, Sor and by Druggists generally.

. Gotels.

MERCHANTS' HOTEL, (Formerly Dennison House,) Fifth street, near Main CINCINNATI, OHIO.

ATTREES THE PARTY OF FRANK P. HORD. 1 J. M. TAYLOI
Late of Kentucky. Late of Kentucky TPROPRIETORS.

Having just purchased the lease of the above well mown hotel, we are now relitting, beauting, refur lighting and esting the entire. Home in first-clear rader and cra assure our riends and the publisher will here and every accommodation and conceined they can desire. We respectfully solicible continuance of the liberal patronage heretofor HORD & TAYLOR, Proprietors.

Marble Gorks MAYSVILLE MARBLE WORKS

B. GILMORE. Second street. MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

THE WEEKLY MAYSVILLE EAGLE.

VOLUME LL

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1869.

THE CUP.

There is a Cup of LIFE: The little prints that stud the threshold o'er Are of the feet of such as came to drink, Fresh in the natel hour-whose infant lips Eschewed the taste, and perished on its brink

There is a Cup of BLISS? It manties bright, and sends its foam aloft, And calls for flowers to twine its sparkling brim The young, gay, beauteous, happy, dance

Nor ken the shapes that 'neath its surface There is a Cup of WEALTH: With worthless tinsel deck'd. The ignoble crowd hat cringe about the glittering fallacy, Ne'er rises so high as taste the current proud, Yet pine to share its splendid misery.

Of POVERTY-a Cup : And the pale rank grass waves its hated swa d, For earth's best souls, thick o'er its sickly brow: 'Tis genius' birth-gift-humble worth's reward

For them that midst its turbid waters flow. GLORY hath too her Cup: She lifts it to the skies I and onward rush

Contending throngs, o'er mountain, vale, an flood ; She views their flashing hosts each other crush; Grinds them to dust, then fills it with their

There is a Cup of TEARS: With oziers bound, and planted on the grave ; Thither the 'reft and desolate repair, With dutsous crops its pearly front to lave, And swell the crystal store that glistens there

For still round sorrow's cup 'Tis meet the faint and weary should con vene To cast the cypress on its waters clear-Descant on hopes that tripp'd life's fairy green, And the stern hour that first enforced a tear Well, there's a Cup of DEATH :

And who so artful as to put it by?" Its magic edge once kiss'd, we dream no mor But wake to day that knows no sunset sky. And beach our prow on unimagin'd shore! LEdward Gamage

WHAT'S MY LOVE LIKE!

I di me, -what's my love like? A lily of the May, That does not shun the kissing sun. Yet keeps it dow all day? Yes, and no; Fond is she, and coy is she,

But-whisper low-She is more than this to me. So, no fily shall she he. But tell me,-What's my love like? A little, cooing dove,

Who fools your breast her safest nest-

A thing of fear and love? Yes, and no. Timid she, and tender she But-whisperlow-She is more than this to me, So, no dove my love shall be,

O teil me,-What's my love like? Perhaps a pourl of girls. For whose sweet face the king would place think, he granted that there was something strange, something inexplicable, in the man er in which that part was again and again, thrust upon me, and always, it would appear, to quality me for helping me to bring about

In the December 1835, I came up to Lon ion to spend my Christmas. I was but nine-een, and had never set foot in the great city before My friend—Jack Halford we will call him—had asked me up to share the grim hospitality of Barnayd's Inn during pantomine time. You must not expect to live luxuriousiv or to fare sumptuously," he had written. The inn of Barnard is severe as to lodgment, and scaly as to catering. It is conge-nial to the tastes of the Eremite rather than to those of the Sybarite; but lendeth itself not unkindly to him who would see life. Come up on the 23d. By that time I shall have returned from a few day's idling in Kent.

or which I am now preparing.' Acting literally on the terms of my friend's invitation, I started from Derbyshire by coach on the morning of the 23d, and arrived in on the morning of the 23d, and arrived in town, cold, hungry, and wretched, long after dark that night. Knowing nothing of Lon-don, I took a cab and drove direct to Barnard's inn. On my arrival, a pimply-faced porter confronted me, and I asked for my "Out of town. Down in Kent!" was his 'But he expected me," I urged. "I could, of course get admission to his room!"

The pimply porter shook his head. He had not the keys. The laudress was at nome—no doubt abed. He had received no rder to admit anybody to Mr. Halford's chambers; sin fact, it would be more than his place was worth to do so. Eventually he onsented to take charge of my luggage, and on his advice, I set out in search of a hotel where I might get a bed for the night.

There were plenty of hotels in Holborn; but, as the street was agreeably bright and lively for the bour, I thought I would waik a little and take my choice of them. Perhaps I was not without some faint hope that I might ancounter Halford, who I felt little doubt would return that night. doubt would return that night. At all events, I wandered away, got out of the main streets. grew bewildered, and eventually, asked my way of a man who turned out to be the boo what he described as a most respectable inn, one of the oldest in London, where, he assured me, I could receive every accomma-

The house was unquestionably old. It had also a dingy and forlors aspect; but I was hungry and tired, and glad to avail myself of supper, with the prospect of a bed to follow. So i allowed myself to be entired into the place, and along a dark passage, into a wretched hole of a room at the back, which had the whole merit of being unoccupied. It had a floor that shelved down towards the great fireplace, wide and draughty, and a low ceiling, shelving also, and threatening to fall in spite of the two huge beams which sus-tained it. A sentury of smokers had contri-buted to the indescribable odor that pervaded it. Two capdles in tin frames burned against the walls, and there was probably an idea that the room benefitted from a lamp in the passage, which could be dimly descried through certain panes of ground-glass in the room-door, which bore the legoned "Coffee room"—quite as a matter of fancy, seeing that coffee had obviously never been drank

there within the memory of living man
A poor suppor a glass of something hot, and to bed. To bed in the close, svuffy backroom, with a look-out comprising the back-windows of a row of houses stretching away farther than I could see. Never had I seen so villianous a room. Tired as I was, sleep seemed impossible; but I threw myself on the hard bed hoping that it might at least give me rest. In that nope I put out the light; but no sooner had I done this than my brain, but no aconer had I done this than my brain, warmed into activity by the glass I had taken, began to exert itself and distressing apeculations. What, I asked myself, was the character of the house into which I had ventured so impatiently? Was I safe, should I be robbed, ill-areated, murdered? For a time I rendered my self atterly misersple through these fears and misgivings. Then I began to laugh them down—to attribute my unpleasant impressions to an ignorance of pened to Halford. It was very mysterious, town life; and so by degrees I grew calmand.

inert, and sleep came upon me unawares. I coming home from a friend's a few nights be-closed my eyelids, and sank into the most re-fore, he had been shot at and severely wound-freshing of slumbers.

From this blissful unconciousness I was startled by a ccream. Jumping up, I looked about me. All dark, all silent; yet I had beard it most distinctly—a shrill, niercing scream, as from the lips of some one in mortal agony. At first my impression was that I was not alone; but, finding all silent about me, I rushed to the window, raised the bind, and looked out-In the instant I did so, my eyes encountered a frightful sight. There was a light shone through the white blind. It shone with sufficient brilliancy to show upon the blind the shadow of two figures. One figure was that of a woman staggering back, with long downloosening hair; the other that of a man, who was rushing upon the woman with a long knife clutched like a dagger in his hand. As I gazed, the knife descended; the woman fell; there was, or I fancied there was, an audible moan; then the light was extinguished—suddenly, as if it had fallen or been trampled under foot—and there was nothing to discovered. under foot-and there was nothing to distinguish that window from any other in the I waited. Standing there, shivering in the ing. The light did not reappear. Whatever the result of the blow I had seen dealt, it had clearly aroused no one, and, though not with-out misgivings that I had witnessed an assas-sination. I at length returned to bed, and-finally sank szain into troubled slumber face had been so distinctly outlined that I letter to the other. while I could with certainty declaire that he wore a sort of forage-cap, with a projecting peak standing out straight from the forehead. Full of this impression, I darted to the window and looked out. Unfortunately Llocked Full of this impression. I darted to the windows and looked out. Unfortunately, I looked out the windows in the There were many windows in the There were well as the There were were well as the There were well as the dow and looked out. Unfortunately, I looked in vain. There were many windows in the row of houses, all alike, and nearly all had the blinds down. The consequence was, that I could not even tell in which I had witnessed the deed of the over-night. This uncertainty train went off the rails. Several of the carriages were overturned, and one was mashed the deed of the over-night. This uncertainty had one effect; with the impetuosity of youth, I burned to communicate what I had witnessed; but I felt that it was hardly likely I should meet with much credit when I could not even point out the house in which what I described had happened. People would not unnaturally conclude that I had been dream-

With this impression I descended to the miserable room in which I had dined over-night, and ordered breakfast. Several persofts were present, each engaged on his morn-ing meal, and I looked from one to the other n the firm conviction that presently some al-

The meal was over, and I sat propping my chin in the hollow of one hand, and staring vacantly at the glazed door, with the lamp still burning in the passage outside it, when I suddenly involuntarily started and cried out.

'No you don't!" he exclaimed aggressive-"What do you mean?" I demanded. "Who is the man who has just quitted this passage?"

"Man!" he ejaculated. "O yes, I dare say; we've heard that before. That's a stale I expressed my astonishment and inability of comprehend his meaning. Of that, nowever, he did not leave me long in doubt.

O, we understand," he remarked injuriousy. "You ain't the fust, by losg chalks, as ave tried on that game; comin' here without a bit or morsel of luggage; gettin' of your supper, bed, and breakisst, and then all of a dden there's a 'man' passin' the winder, or there's a 'pintment in the city, or a somethink or another, and off you goes! And we may look for the bill, we may. O yes? we know! Not this time. Not if we're aware of it!"

The effect of this imputation of swindling notives so overwhelmed me that I had not a which, as I saw on emerging, into the street, was called the Green Posts. Hastening off on Barnard's Inn, I had the satisfaction of finding that Halford had returned, and was him the adventure in which his absence had involved me. He listened, but attached no great inportance to what I had seen.

Stabbings and things of that sort are constantly happening in London," he said. There isn't a night without its dozen mur-ders. However, I know the Green Posts, up Gray's Inn Roadway, and we'll go up this way and see if you can find the house where this appened.

This suggestion entirely jumped into my views, and after dinner we set out, found the house I had slept at, and the street adjoining it. And, indeed, it would have been strange nad we not found the latter, for it was full of people in the utmost state of excitement. There were, moreover, fire-engines in it; others were momentarily arriving, and a great glare of flames irradiated the sky. A house was on fire, and I had a conviction that it was the very house in which I had seen the murrous deed perpetrated. I was for giving information to the authorities, but Halford dissuaded me. "Doubtless the body of the woman is concealed," he said; "the house having in all probability been fired with that object. You would only bring yourself into unenviable notoriety for no purpose." And I remained silent, though the fire intensified my suspiction that I had witnessed the perpetration of a cowardly murder.

Years passed away. Halford had risen in his profession, but still clung to his gloomy old stronghold in Barnard's Inn. I had spent many a jovial hour thore in those halcyon days which precede the stern realities of medical life; the days sacred to the most joyous of human pursuits, the walking of hospitals! had succeeded to my father's practice, and lived in the old house, in the quiet old Derbyshire market town, which our family had in habited for two hundred years.

The next night found me at Barhard's Inn.
My coming had been eagerly looked for, the porter told me, and in confirmation of this I was received at the door of Jack's chambers by a young woman, who, on seeing me, utter-

One night, on returning from a long profes-ed an exchamation of gratitude, and thanked me again and for my kinduess in coming. "I have the pleasure of addressing Joanna?" I inquired.

She blushed and dropped her eyelids in acquiescence. She had deeply-fringed lids, and tears like dewdrops glistened on the fringes.

A pretty, sweet-faced woman altogether was Shot at ?" I ejaculated with genuine sur

She shook her head, and was then seized informed me that the effects of the shot had been very serious, from a difficulty in extract-ing the ball, which had, however, been hap-pily accomplished that morning. Since then there had been a slight improvement.

I found my friend ill, very ill, but did not despair of his life. He was quite insensible, and remained so many days. During that time I stayed in town; in fact, I protracted my stay long enough to satisfy myself that he was out of danger. My companion in the sick-room was Joanna, whose intelligence I found to equal her beauty. We talked much of Jack, and I saw that she was devoted to him; but she did not say a word about herself dark, I waited for what might happen next. For half an hour at least I remained at the was so delicate that I dared not question her window, but without anything further occurupon it. One singular observation, and one only, she let slip; it was to the effect that it was hard he should suffer all this for her sake.

That phrase struck me at the time, and haunted me both on my homeward journey and long afterward. What did it mean? In a month or so, Jack had recovered sufficient-Late in the morning, heavy steps on the stairs awoke me. Almost immediately the neident of the shadow on the blind recurred which had been attended with consequences. to me with intense vividness. I could see the knife, the falling woman, and the man, whose riages were overturned, and one was mashed to atoms. In that one carriage several persons were riding, and all were more or less injured. The severest sufferer was an English-man, Jasper Nuttall, as I gathered from his card-case; for immediately on learning what had happened, I went to his assistance.

The man was very much shaken, two, of his ribs were broken, and he had received some internal injury which caused blood to flow from his mouth. His own conviction was that he would not recover, and his horror of death was childish in its exaggeration. For this, however, I soon learned there was a cause. lusion to a murder in the neighborhood would greet my ears. In this I was disappointed: all were silent. So I imitated their example held my peace, and breakfasted as best I a most serious nature. This was the subdivulge what I was about to hear, while he lived, he entrusted me with a confession of stance of it.

The name he bore was not his true name, he said; what that was did not matter, as he had not used it for many years. The occasion of his abandoning it was this.

He had spent his early life as a midshipman

For whose sweet face the king would place

His crown upon her caris?

Yes, and no:

Worthy of a king is she,

But—whisper low—
She is more, and is for me.

So, no queen my love will be.

LINKS IN A CHAIN.

In an interval of a busy professional life, I sit down to record a series of remarkable events. Bemarkable they unquestionably were in themselves, but more especially so, from the manner in which they came within my experience. Though the part I played in connection with them was from first to last little more than a spectator, yet it will, I think, he granted that there was something strangs against the standard and cried out. The had spent his early life as a midshipman in the passage outside it, when I suddenly involuntarily started and cried out. The had spent his early life as a midshipman in the passage and to my same as I looked, I saw the shadow of a face cast by the lamp on the ground glass. It was the face of some one atealing noiselessly along the passage and to my amazement I recognised it as the same face I hed beheld over night—the face of the man who had deait the blow! I could swear to the features, and, still more, I could not be mistaken in this identity of the peaked cap.

Acting solely on impulse, I darted out of the room and made my way along the passage outside it, when I the had spent his early life as a midshipman in the passage and to my amazement I recognised it as the same face I hed beheld over night—the face of the man who had deait the blow! I could swear to the features, and, still more, I could not encourage his advances, her heart being already given to another, who was secretly paying her his addreases. Such, how ever, was this Jasper's ardor, that he gave her no peace, and followed her up with such in discretion that the school authorities discovered the connection and talked of expulsion, who was the face of the man who had deait the blow! I could not encourage his advances, her heart being already tall; and in a few days they were privately married. But, directly the ceremony was performed, the girl repented of her rash act, and seizing an opportunity, ran away from the husband of an hour. Exasperated beyond measure, the nargator proceeded, he followed his wife up to London: ascertained, after a while, that she was in hiding in a low lodging in a questionable neighborhood. He found out also that she had written to her old lover, to what effect he knew not, and on the night of making these iscoveries he went to the house she was con cealed in, found a means of entrance, and ddenly presented himself before the terrified woman, who caught up a table knife to defend herself with. This he snatched from her, and maddened with drink, passion and jealousy, he, on her irritating him by a refu sal to explain or go elsewhere with him, plunged it into her heart. That done, he left the house as secretly as he had entered it, but did word to offer in explanation or defense. I imply paid my bill and quitted the house, thich, as I saw on emerging into the state of the derer. But all that day passed and nothing happened. At night-fall an idea took posses-sion of his maddened brain. He determined full of apologies for the inconvenience he had to fire the house in which he had committed caused me. Later in the day I confided to the murder, so as to hide all traces of his

"And this hideous purpose you carried into execution," 1 interrupted. it perfectly.

You remember?" be asked aghast. "Certainly; I saw the marder commit

So astounded was the poor wretch at the words, astounded and overcome with mingled pain and terror, that he fainted. In that state he was removed to a cottage in the neighbor-hood: and when the train was ready to carry hose of us able to travel on to Paris, I left im, with the firm impression that his eyes The fact that this revolution should have een made to me-to me of all human beings -impressed me so strongly, that on my return to England I wrote to Jack Halford, giv ing him an account of what had happen as far as I felt myself justified in doing so, dwelling on the singularity of our old mystery being cleared up after so many years; and adding that now the unhappy wretch was dead and gone, it was well that his secret should die with him.

To this I received an immediate reply, expressing surprise, and asking whether the name of the dead man was not Jasper Nuttall. My astonishment at the question was great out I had no reason to withhold the informa tion from my old friend, and I answered in the affirmative. For at least three months after, I heard no more of Jack. Then he wrote, informing me that he was about to give up the old chambers and the old life; to tear himself from the old blandishments of the Inn of Barnard, and to take unto himself a partner in life's transports and tribulations. The lady's name he informed me was Joanna Hilders, orphan daughter of the late Captain Hilders, a lady whom I would recollect having met at the inn some years ago.

At last, then, the murder was out; Jon was to be his wife. I certainly resented not having been taken into their confidence behand, entreating me to come up to London without loss of time. Halford, the writer said, was ill; she feared, dying. The letter bore a signature; but I could only decipher "Joanna;" the rest was a mere blur.

IV.

experiment was again tried on the following Christmas. Mrs. Jack was, as I have intimated, a pretty lovable woman, and I often won-dered where he had met with her. It leaked ply whispered in his ear. Thereupon he looked serious, but instantly shook off the feeling, and said with a smile, "Joanna is constantly fancying likenesses in strangers to people we have met. Did you observe anything peculiar in the stranger under the tree we last passed? I had not even observed a stranger;

I said so, and there the matter dropped.

That evening we sat round the fire in our with so violent a tremor that she had to clutch at a chair to save herself. Then she further the windows, and to listen to the ringing of eyes. Struggling forward, he threw up his arms, and uttered a wild shriek.

"My wife!" he screamed. "Give me my dead wife!"

In uttering these word he rushed towards Halford, but on his way stumbled against the table in the middle of the room and fell forward over it, his bare arms thrown out wildly, and his head striking on the mahogany with a gave him a foreign mission. But the Republican parsuates that the Republican parsuates and is officed prettier than the colored trimming in vogue a year or two since. The flat "Marseilles" braid is much used for ornaments cousin, Abe Lincoln, then poor in the world.

"Old times had changed, old manners gone," and Ulysses was elected President, but he remembered Silas, his faithful consin, and large figures, has been marked down to twenty-five cents per yard.

"Jasper! she ejaculated in a tone of hor-ror, and sank back insensible.

the connecting link between the incidents of years—between my first London experience, as above recorded, and the horror I had just witnessed. Intuitively I perceived, what I had never of course for an instant suspected, that Joanna was the object of Jasper Nuttall's affection, the girl whom he had made his wife. But he had taken her life, and destroyed her body in the flames of the burning house! True, he believed that; but was it so? Had the wound Le had inflicted proved mortal, or had it not?

Under pretense of fucilitating her restoration, I stepped up, and with a pair of scissors divided the cord that fastened Joanna's hodice. As I expected, her bosom presented traces of a stab—a deep, fiery scar. Halford's quick eye noticed that I saw this, and that it had a significance for me. On this he—when the body of the unfortunate man had been removed by the keepers—tendered an explanation which spared me further conjecture.

His avowal was to this effect. He was people of the lodging house discovering in aspiring politician, who holds the place proved by the attempt at length made on Hal- (From the Davis County (Radical) Republican. ord's life, for neither he nor Joanna ever doubted that it was Jasper Nattall who-Joanna's position was a most painful one; but on Halford's receiving my account of the railway accident, and the discovery which it wonder, then, that Joanna should have been overcome with terror when, that night, she affected with "nuralgy" and rumetism,

My hasty conclusion as to the impossibility | qualities besides correct orthography he posof the man's surviving had, of course, done all the mischief. He had survived, but his health was shattered, and his brain, always weak and excitable, had given way, and his friends in England had placed him in the Derby Asylum, from which he had that day reproach prompted the sears Joanna shed at Hon J. B. Weaver: another of the links in this strange chain of events, extending over so many years. It seemed a strange accident that I was ever concerned in the matter at all; yet hat for that accident, Halford and Joanna might never have been united, and Nuttall would probably have died in the asylum, his death, unknown to those who, from uncertainty about his fate, and terror at his probable reappearance, might have gone down to their graves nursing a hopeless and fruitless has you see or hear from me graves nursing a hopeless and fruitless passizon see or hear from me.

sion. The problem of their lives was happily destined to be worked out to a more blissful trust this duty to me, and took to me for its

| Warren. |From the N. Y. San, 18.] Last and least of the happy consummations

f true love which it is the Sun's pleasant pre-of true love which it is the Sun's pleasant prerogative to cast a beam upon, is the marriage of the redoubtable Commodore Nutt, of Lilliputian memory, to the charming fittle Miss Minnie Warren, so long his companion in the roalms of great Barnum's enterprise. Several years have gone by since that mythical little bird, which Mrs. Grundy had trained to spy on the pranks of Capid, whispered to that ardent dame that Minnie and the Commodore had fallen willing victims to Capid's dark to be able to control because of your sanguini. had fallen willing victims to Cupid's darts. Mrs. Grundy, however, had nothing to say at the time, for she argued that if ever a "match was made in heaven," if ever people were 'made for each other," it was the Lilliputian effort to involve me in dishonor. uple. At last we are happy to be able to delight Mrs. Grundy with the announcement that Miss Minnie and the Commodore have been made hone of one bone, flesh of one flesh, and all the rest of it, according to the The next Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Jack, as regulations in such cases provided; while at the called them, came down to Derbyshire on a visit, and so pleasant did this prove, that the same time we are forced to shock her alightly by adding that the wedding was strictly private, only a few friends being admitted to witness the ceremony. Mr. Chas, S. Stratton, (Tom Thumb) and his pretty little wife, once Miss Livium Warren, the sister dered where he had met with her. It leaked out that he had known her some years, and that was about all that I was able to learn.

During this second visit the weather was fine, and we rode out most days. On the afternoon preceding Christmas Eve we took a long drive, and while going through a lane bordered with trees, a trifling but rather singular incident occurred. The lady suddenly reied out, O. Jack! Jack! and pointed in the direction in which she was looking, her face being expressive of interes alarm. Jack inquired what was the matter, and she in re-

NUMBER 16

Correspondence of the Enquirer. !

Iowa, June 17, 1869. In order to fally undestand the following classical and spicy correspondence, we mus first introduce you to the parties involved old-fashioned dining-room. The lamp was not-lit, but the piled logs sent out a strong glare, and it was pleasant, in the flickering, uncer-tain light, to see the stars shining through the windows, and to listen to the ringing of distant church bells, borne in fitful gusts on store in the town of Galena, Cousin Silas was a well-to-do man of the world in the town of Burlington, Iowa. At this time both cousins, burst in, and, looking round, I saw a man leap into the room. He was ragged in his dress, with shock hair, a white face and fierrely harning. shock hair, a white face and fiercely burning eyes. Struggling forward, he threw up his arms, and uttered a wild shriek.

"My wife!" he screamed. "Give me my dead wife!"

"Give me my dead wife!"

because it was understood that prohibition entered as a main plank in the Republican party platform, but in the mistortunes which for lowed Ulysses always showed the same generous spirit to Silas that Ino. Hank did to his cousin, Abe Lincoln, then poor in the

and his head striking on the mahogany with a gave him a foreign mission. But this position was given Silas in the face of great op-Both Halford and his wife started up, but position, that of nearly the entire I owa delethe latter, with a scared and terrified look, dropped back into her chair. States Senator and a late Secretary of the In-terior. The programme of the Congressman daties that have I open and Paris!

While I was in the act of making this discovery, there were voices and footsteps with any I overy, there were voices and footsteps with each overy, there were voices and footsteps with each own. They week a mile I was in the act of making the window. They were keeper's from the carmashed out wildly at the air, uttered heing before me sprang from the carmashed in the carmashed out wildly at the air, uttered a per less in ball per less in the angles. The segent and the carmashed in the window. They were keeper's from the carmashed in the window. They were keeper's from the carmashed in the were he application of the foots and the window. They were keeper's from the carmashed in the were head.

Saglish- Rapidly as all this had passed, there had been time enough for me to see, as in a flash. Rapidly as all this had passed, there had been time enough for me to see, as in a flash, the connecting link between the incidents of age of that miserable place to rob the strang-explanation which spared me further conjecture.

His avowal was to this effect: He was Jasper Nuttail's rival, and was down to Canterbury, waiting to see Joanna on the day of my visit to his chambers. Although he then failed to see her, he received her letter apprising him of the false step she had taken, and imploring his forgiveness. Hence, he little imagined that she was in danger; less still, of course, that it was against her I had seen a murderous hand raised, or that it was her body suspected to have perished in the falmes of the laurning house. Fortunately, the wound inflicted hid not proved mortal. The knife did not enter her heart, but passed between the two lobes of the lungs, and the people of the lodging house discovering in people of the lodging house discovering in time what had happened, the anhappy girl was removed to a hospital, so that Nattall's second criminal act, that of firing the house, was perpetrated in vain. After the fire Jasper Nattall disappeared, and for years Joanna remained in concealment, watched over by Haltord, though estranged from him by her fatal marriage. No doubt the murderer, as he believed himself to be, spent the interval he believed himself to be, spent the interval are anxious to know who will heat in this con-at sea; but that he nursed the deadliest ha-tred of his rival in his heart was pretty well We all here bet on cousin Silas.

COUSIN SILAS.

outled that it was Jasper Nattall who—robably during a temporary stay in England
-fired the shot which so nearly ended my riend's elife. All the while Nuttall lived, and "Cousin Silas," of Burlington. We fear Silas' recent promotion as Minister to Guate mala, over a man of brains and against the wishes of the whole lowa delegation in Conhad led to, with the conclusion I had too has gress, is operating too heavy on his imaginatily jumped at, that the man was dead, he had formally proposed to his old love, and their marriage followed as a thing of course. What fortunate for Silas that he is so dreadfully much so that he can not write more. The people would be pleased to know what other

But here is Silas first letter verbatin et spell atim whichwas shortly followed by a demand for a change in the Assistant Assessorship riends in England had placed him in the for Des Moines County at the same time Derby Asylum, from which he had that day ontrived to escape.

Poor wretch! we pitied him sincerely. Jack's tender heart was moved at his miser, and digest it. Silas wants his brother in law able end, and perhaps the least touch of self-deeply as he had wronged her. For my own part, while I felt for him, I was strongly impart, while I felt for him, I was strongly impressed by the singular hearing of one apon another of the links in this strange chain of another of the links in this strange chain of proper discharge. Please answer immediately Marriage of Commodore Nuttand Minnie rumetism to be able to write more at this marent has time. be lest all and to be able to control because of your sanguini I scorn your pretended influence, and re-

BLOOMERELD, June 8, 1869.

Lam, sir, . J. B. WEAVER, Assessor

Summer Fashions—The Latest Novelties in Bress. From the N. Y. Post, 15.1 A nevelty in silks is a new color recently imported for dinner dresses, and called roraile It is very brilliant to gas-tight, resembling a delicate shade of flame color with light and dark flashes. One peculiarity of this coral-tinted silk, commending it to all, is that it be-

Letter From Iowa, Consin Silos Bro-ther Harian—Gen. Weaver—U.S. Grant—filmny Howell—Foreign Missions— Revenue Offices—Insolence—Dictator-ship—Official Imbroglio.

fashionable for street costumes. The changeable Japanese silks are new, and as pretty and effective as the changeable taffetas silk. Whether this Japanese silk will be durable, or will become soiled easily, canact yet be decided, but it is not expensive, the price ranging from one dollar and a half to price ranging from one donar the two dollars a yard.

Grenadines in black grounds, or in the delicate shades of fashionable colors, with a set figure or richly tinted flower, are worn this But for summer evening wear the gaze de Chambery is most in vogue, and narrow ones of a contrasting color. For home wear there are the cool, pretty organdies the snow-white ground and delicate sprays of beautiful flowers resting upon it. The new piques are in white grounds, with small set figures and flowers. The white pique is much used for children's dresses and suits, which is usually trimmed with white,

STIPULATIONS WITH ADVERTISE

Advertisements ordered for less than one month will be charged fifty cents persquare for each losertion after the first.

Special notices fifteen cents a line for the first insertion, and ten cents a line for each subsequent arriage and death notices inserted gratuitously

Marriage and death notices inserted gratuitously Obitnery notices ten cents per line.

The privileges extended to annual advertisers will estrictly confined to their own business, and advertisements occupying more space than contracted or, or advertisements foreign to the legitimate usiness of the contracting parties, will be charged or extra, at our published rates.

five cents per yard.

Patterns for dresses, the material imitating linen-have stripes for two flounces around the bottom, also stripe for trimming the corsage and sleeves; a dress costs six dollars.
English twilled foulards are something new and pretty for summer suits, being light and plain skirt has become an exception to the general rule. Trimming them artistically arranged, adds much to the attractiveness of the dress, but too often the beautiful is sacrificed to the unbecoming. Belts are still worn, of the same material as the dress, but the long ends are no longer fashionable; yet this is compensated for by the large loops and hows at the back of the helt.

A beautiful evening dress of white tarleten same material, divided by tippings of the same material, divided by tippings of blue satin that are half hidden among the cloud-like puffs. The overdress of the same material, is trimmed by box-pisted ruffles set on with blue satin pipings and caught up infestoons by blue satin roseties. The corsage is made and trimmed to correspond. Another of white Swiss made is made and trimmed to correspond. of white Swiss muslin, has a long trained skirt, the back and side breadths being trimmed nearly to the waist with narrow flounces. The front breadth is ornamented by tucks and puffs, and with this dress was worn, on a recent occasion, a Roman scarf. One of the prettiest dresses recently worn is of lavender.

silk, the most delicate shade, and trimmed with elegant fringe and point applique lace. A tasteful evening dress for a young lady of thin white mull, trimmed with flounces hat are edged with narrow Valenciennes lace, and festooned with hows of blue satin ribbon. A skirt of azure-colored silk, with wide, flatplaited flounces around the hottom, is worn under this thin white dress. A black grensdine attracted much attention from the neatness and richness of trimming. The under-skirt has two flounces around the bottom, set on with white satin piping. The upper skirt s also decorated by narrow ruffles and white and held by white satin folds, embroidered in o match the skirt, and with it is worn an ele-

A neat, unassuming dress word on a recent ecasion by a blonde, was of white alpaca. made with only one skirt, but that trimmed with five box-plaited flounces, that were headed with narrow black lace edging, and set on with narrow black velvet ribbon

Silk, the color called 'cedar-berry' in quite ashionable; a dress of this silk is made of a long trained skirt withdeep flounces of black Chantilly lace. At the back, upon the upper part of the skirt, a pull is formed of black lace jacket, with a full, short skirt.

A beautiful dress of gaze de Chamber,—a white ground with satin stars—and made ap over a delicate pink silk. The silk skirt is trained but made plain, the chambery with long train, and a box-plaited flounce around the bottom, set on with a bias fold of white satin about an inch wide. Small white satin bows are set on at regular intervals, one-balf rest above the flounce and one-half upon it. Ily The bodice and sleeves are trimmed to correspond with the skirt. Cedar-berry is not an entirely new color, but is the fashionable name given to a delicate shade of steel color that is slightly tinged with blue

A pretty morning dress is of white pique, is made in a half-fitting jacket, the skirt long. and slightly trained. The jacket opens to the over a vest of the same, or one of white lines Pique of some delicate color also makes very pretty morning dresses. A dress of aguzed pique, white ground with purple spray, is bound with purple braid.

The most elegant suits now worn on the streets are of black silk. They are made with double skirt, or may be trimmed to simulate an over-skirt, and can have a close fitting basque, or a half-fitting sack belted down, or a small cape may he worn, as suits the fancy. A sait of black silk recently worn has a wide flounce box-plaited around the bottom. the upper edge forming a narrow-ruffle above, a narrow satio fold. The upper skirt is festioned at the sides by satin rosettes, and trimmed with wide lace. The basque has a short skirt, and is trimmed with satin ruching and lace. Another, equally attractive, but not as expensive, has two narrow flounces around the bottom, and a ruffle set on to represent an overskirt. There are short frills attached to the belt at the back, in imitation of a basque, and a close-fitting basque laid open in front with recers, and worn over a white linea vest.

A suit of black mohair alpaca is made ap quite stylish and is very serviceable. The skirt has a single flounce around the bottom the over-skirt is trimmed with ruffles, and caught up slightly at the sides by small ro-settes; and the bodice, cut with revers, is entirely plain A small cape, edged with a nar-row ruffle, with two or three plaits on the shoulder, completes the costume.

Poplin, in the light fashionable shades, is much used for suits. These poplic suits are made with flounces ruffles or puffs, and a basque or cape often trimmed with fringe of

A suit of green silk has the skirt plain, the over-skirt edged with fringe a shade darker than the silk; the close fitting basque has a short skirt with fringe, and a bertha is de-scribed by two satin folds and one row of frings. A double row of green satin buttons decorated the front.

Plaid saits are worn to some extent, but, unless the material is good, are not pretty. Plaid suits made up in what is called mohair can be bought for the low price of eight doilars, but it is better to purchase more durable material, even if by doing so a lady can have but one suit at a time. There is no economy in a cheap, thin fabric; one suit of good material will outwear three of these cheap suita

RIP VAN WINKIE has turned up in Florids, appearing at Sa Mary's, the other day, out of the depths of the everglads bringing two negroes for sale. He rubbe his eyes and didn't believe when he was to Pfice on Second street, between Court and Market.

MAYSVILLE, KY., JUNE 30, 1869. The evidence in the case of E. M. YER-OER new being tried by a military commission at Jackson. Mississippi, for the murupon the minds of the unprejudiced that he deserves the penalty which the law preunder circumstances of singular atrocity and brutality and with the utmost deliberation, after the deceased had repeatedly declined any combat and had evinced a purpose to avoid a difficulty. The fact people of that county voted more than a that Crank struck Verger with a light that CRANE struck YERGER with a light year ago as stock in the Maysville and Lex- are opposed to all progress. They want no more by both cane is no mitigation or palliation ington Railroad Company. His conduct taxes. They want no railroads, no navigation of the latter, who had had been such as to disgust the friends of education. They want no State aid to railarmed himself for the express purpose of the enterprise without gaining the respect roads. They are willing that we should be seeking the rencountre, which was declined of its enemies. His speech at the meeting left behind in the march of improvement, or that our resources should be developed by by the victim even after insults almost unof the steekholders in this city was a sinforeigners. They choke and murmur about endurable, but who was finally provoked gular mixture of egotism and judicial every proposed measure that looks to the to give a blow with the caue by actual dullness. It was a mooted point whether physical violence on the part of YERGER he had been transmogrified into an enein pushing and shoving him about as he my of the road, or whether he merely among the Democracy upon the all-importurned his back to walk away from his cruel slayer. We are not moved to this opinion by any sympathy with Crane, who occupied the position of Mayor of Jack-son by a military appointment under the infamous reconstruction measures, and law fortunate by had left nothing to his dis-law fortunate by had left nothing to his disoccupied the position of Mayor of Jack- sented by the tax. potism by which a once free people have der. And yet, if we are correctly inform- to what constitutes the true and highest ingovernment. But assassination is not one would not comply with this requisition of and celerity, it requires no prophetic vision to of the means by which great public rights can be regained, and the issue between the prehended they might be compelled to ap-The fact that CRANE was one of the repre-sentatives of Federal usurpation was not a were not realized. But whether the course with the people whom he was there | will be at a loss to determine. to oppress, and to whom his holding the place of Mayor was an evidence of the humiliation heaped upon them. The plea of insanity is set up by YERGER'S friends and his attorneys in defense, and certainly they fied the Fifteenth Amendment of the Conare able to prove that he was a man of re- stitution, providing for impartial suffrage markable ferocity, ungovernable temper and bad passions, revengeful in the extreme, and blood-thirsty, beyond description; but there is nothing in the evidence to indicate that he was laboring under any hallucination at the time of the murder' that rendered him irresponsible, and nothing to show that he was not perfectly conscious of what he was about to do. It seems to us that he went about his bloody work in a very calculating and truly professional manner. It is strange that in mitigation of such an offense should be plead ginia, Mississippi, and Texas, as a condihis savage nature and tiger-like thirst for gore. If this disposition is insanity, then the best cure for it is a judicious application of hemp, and prompt administration enormous than it is, he is still entitled to a enforce it; and so, after this year, the nefair trial by a jury of his countrymen, em- gro vote in all the States, North and South. pannelled by a civil court. The Constitu- will have to be taken into the estimates of my associations are appealed to in emergencies, and, like true soldiers, they rally almost tion accords him this right, and the laws politicians. which deprive him of it, and which empowabout to be perpetrated.

becoming contagious or epidemic.

INRIDGE, Junior, advocated the admission General. of negro testimony by the State Courts, we we were well pleased. Had he come out on the broad and true ground, that the reform in the laws of evidence in the State should be made because it was necessary to because under the operation of the Civil Legislature, nominated JOHNS. WILLIAMS who are aspiring to occupy the posts of honor kights Rill which would be cotten rid of for that position. We learn from the in Kentucky. Under our laws they have as by the change hardships are frequently imposed upon the whites, we would have been delighted. But we were gratified that he had made a single step towards the truth, and hailed him as a valuable auxiliary in a good cause, trusting that an adherence to his position in favor of admitting the testimony might yet clear his intellectual vision so that he would be tioned in the Convention. We hope that of battle." It should be remembered that ed change.

But we were not a little astonished, not to say mortified, to read a correspondence in the Danville Advocate in which Mr. BRECKINEIDGE proposed a willingness that a poll shall be opened and the sense of the Democratic party taken upon the question, pledging himself to abide by their decision. A very ingenious way of party fairly and squarely in favor of negro If they have ever had the misfortune to fire a question, pledging himself to abide by avoiding a mutiny in the Democratic suffrage and giving Congress the right to gun on the Federal side it takes a life time to camp, but not a position that is very cred- enforce it in all the States. The Demositable to Mr. BRECKINGIDGE or very char. racy of Ohio defeated the attempt to incoracteristic of the race from which he sprung. porate negro suffrage in the State Consti-It is, in fact, a clean and straight-out back. tution in 1867, and we hope they may be down, and nothing else can be made out equally successful this year in defeating of it. It would have been more worthy of the party who desire to take from the Mr. BRECKINGIDGE had he followed the States the power to determine this quesexample of his younger brother and man. tion for themselves, and not only to fix fully defended his position, and avowed negro suffrage in the Federal Constitution ty, and that it be parsisted in, though we are now strong and bold, the sceptre will depart his preference to be beaten upon it rather but to give to Congress the power to legisthan surrender his convictions of what is late on the subject. dictated by sound public policy and the exigence of Kentucky's political situation. A correspondence in another column

. What is there about the Democratic between SILAS A. HUDSON, the cousin of party or any other party which requires the President, who is said to wield more Mr. BELCKINGIDGE or any other man to influence over him than any one else in the obey ats will in disregard of his own judge- matter of appointments, and Gen. WEAV. in Covington, on Saturday, to nominate ment? If the voters of the Democratic ER, is as instructive as it is amusing. It candidates for the Legislature, resulted in party in his senatorial district happen to teaches us the character of the men who the nomination of Hon. Jas. Stranons and be opposed to the admission of negro tes. control the Government, and what a gro- J. N. FURBER, Esq. A convention was to exp timony, then, from Mr. Breckinginge's velling idea they have of their own func- have been held Wednesday to nominate a THE BEST QUALITY OF DRUGS view, they are in error, and no man so be liewing nught to pledge himself to support the wrong because it may be required of him in which he rebukes the impudence of the Carling no apposition, will by

Mr. BRECKINRIDGE's great error is in looking to his election to a seat in the end. A higher view would be to reward office as a means of carrying out one's der of Col CRANE, leaves but little doubt be in a seat in the Legislature to excuse an abandonment of principle in order to get it? And what can there be about any scribes for the crime of which he stands party that a man who is a man should pay accused. The murder was perpetrated to it an allegiance higher than he pays to matters. truth, the right, justice or God?

THE TAX LEVIED.

thus gave his countenance to and became cretion or to his want of it, but made it tions of Central Kentucky, there is also more one of the instruments of an accursed des-his plain and imperative duty to issuethe or-less the popular mind is better educated as been robbed of their birth-right of self- ed, he has so frequently threatened that he terests of the State, and acts with unanimity two men was one of a personal character. ply for a mandanus to compel him to achievements and nobler triumphi justification for his slaughter in cold blood, change of front was induced by dextrous tions. In many sections no man is held to be however full the reason afforded by the flattery, or by opening his eyes to the fact for his exclusion from all social inter- indignation his course was arousing, many The dead issues of the war are constantly re-

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT. The Florida ratification makes, we believe, the twenty-fifth State that has ratito male citizens above the age of twentyone years, throughout the United States, without distinction of race or color. The whole number of States at present is thirly-seven. The approval by the legislatures of three-fourths of these thirty-seven is necessary to fix this amendment as part of the supreme law of the land." Twentyeight States, therefore, being necessary, three more will yet be needed to meet the requisition. Under the last Reconstruction law (signed by President GRANT) Virtion precedent to restoration to Congress, are required to ratify this amendment. Rhode Island and Vermont will ratify it. In short, with the re assembling of Congress of the remedy will prevent the disease from in December, we may expect impartial suffrage to be proclaimed as fixed in the su-But were YERGER's crime ten-fold more preme law, with the power of Congress to

er military commissions to sit in judgment upon citizens not connected with the miliference to the acceptance, by General cratic party in Kentucky. Any organization There seems to be some difficulty in retary or naval service, are at war with our Sickles, of the Spanish Mission, while an founded on proscription is sure to fall. It institutions and destructive of public lib- officer in the army, notwithstanding the may win temporary triumphs, but the flush of erty. The whole system of military recon- fact he has already been granted a leave of struction and tyranny, of which these mil- absence for a year, with permission to go ments, and if the bulk of the offices is to be itary trials are the most damning feature, abroad. The law of March 3, 1869, pro- given to one element solely on the ground of has an inevitable tendency to produce vides "that any officer of the army or navy service in the Southern armies, there is no rather than to check such acts as that of of the United States who shall, after the YERGER. The men who are engaged in passage of this act, accept or hold any aptrying him will, if they have him executed, pointment in the diplomatic or consular fasten upon their souls a murder scarcely service of the Government, shall be conless heinous morally or legally than his sidered as having resigned his said office, own, and which will inflict greater damage and the place held by him in the military upon public right than a thousand private or naval service shall be deemed and taken murders could do. It will not be simply to be vacant, and shall be filled in the the execution of a murderer, but it will be same manner as if the said officer had rea deadly blow at the civil right of the peo- signed the same." But it is held by many ple by those entrusted with the administra- that General SICKLES, being a retired oftion of the government. The whole press ficer, notwithstanding the fact that he is and all the people should unite in denounc. | under pay, does not come under the proviing and in trying to prevent the commis- sions of the above act. The points in the sion of this great national crime which is case are yet undecided by the Government officers, but it is thought that the General will either have to resign his army commission or decline the mission to Spain. When we first read that ROBERT J. BRECK- The subject will be referred to the Attorney

The Democratic Convention which met at Zion on Friday, 18th inst., to select a candidate for Representative of Montgom do justice to the excluded class, as well as Legislature, nominated John S. Williams Rights Bill, which would be gotten rid of Clark Demacrat that Gen. WILLIAMS de-Clark Democrat that Gen. WILLIAMS declines the nomination on account of his desire to better his private fortunes, which men, as much patriotism and honesty. The were ruined by disastrous speculation in course that we criticise, and the conduct the Northwest, and not by the war, as the day against which we in the name of a majority of the Democratic party of Kentucky protest is Democrat asserts. The feeling between the that they, or that anybody for them, should friends of Thomas Turner and Mr. urge their service in the Confederate armies RICHART, of Montgomery, had become 30. as ground of their attess, why they should be chosen over other aspir bitter that the name of neither was men- ants who never stood on the "perilous edge some one may be nominated who is an out- man may be a good Democrat, although he spoken advocate of State aid to railroads. never slept in the trenches of Petersburg or ate short rations in the mountains of Tennesernor HATES and Lieut. Gov. LEE were renominated for the offices which they respectively hold. The platform places the

by a mere party or a very small portion of conceited and vulgar upstart is exceedingly common consent, be the candidate for retire, adopting it as our own : attention to some defects in the organization of the Democratic party and stating come objections to the policy of its course in many matters. What we then said was spoken generally, but that, and more, is true of our party in Kentucky. We are charged with being unfriendly to progress and reform, and there On Monday Judge HOLLIDAY issued the we have in our ranks many men of intelli-

HOME TRUTHS.

> worthy to hold an office, unless the has served in some capacity in the Confederate Army. vived. The question is not asked whether a man have ability and fitness, but what sort of clothes he wore during the war. If he staid at home and sympathized, he is met by the fact that he didn't fight; and if his feeling were on the Federal side, even though he may now be acting in the utmost good faith, and has repented of his sins in sackclotn and ashes, and scraped himself with the potsherd penitential reflection, he is told to stand back, and take a low seat as a voter. The forget the past, and to draw no invidious dis-tinctions and to choose candidates colely for success will but basten its dissolution. The Democratic party is made up of many eleway but for the other element to combine and combat such a spirit. If we are to keep together as a party, we must lay aside all prosription. A man's party fealty, and fitness or place should not be made to depend upon the fact that he fought under the Stars and Bars or the Stars and Stripes. The terms Confederate and Federal should pass from our political vocabulary. A Confedrate soldier should not ask office because he fought under John Morgan, or a Federal soldier because he fought under Wolford. When a mane puts nimself before the people, the sole ifiquiry should be, is he a Democrat, and does he poseas the qualifications to fill the place with redit and ability? Any other test is suicidal and dangerous. Already, the eagerness withwhich many sections are pushing forward Confederate soldiers for the highest positions n the State is driving many men ranks who have been acting with us for several years and who came into the party because they were told that it was not organized on the dead issues of the rebellion, and that every man of merit, no matter whether, in the days before the war, he had been Whig or Democrat, no matter whether, during the war, he had followed Lee or Grant, could have a fair chance for promotion. Now, numbers of these men, seeing the doors of promotion are closed upon them are standing back and refusing to give us active cooperation.

We have no word of rebuke for those Confederate soldiers who have been called to and as ground of their fitness, and as a reason

At the Radical State Convention of new converts. Every prominent proselyte is Ohio, held in Columbus on the 23d, Gov- nailed forthwith by an office or appointment, and when there is no chance of election, is honored by a nomination. The Democratic plan is just the reverse. New members are atone for the sin and a flood of tears of penitence, for a generation cannot wash away the smell of the villainous gunpowder, and if the smell of the virial nous gampowder, and if the convert happened to be in the State Legislature, and voted to raise the flag on the capitol, to recruit men or for the "expatriation law." he is doomed to eternal political damnation. The fauthful works of a lifetime will not cave. Democratic grace will never reach him We submit that is such a course is folly, and un-relieved by a single ray of wisdom and sagaci-

> The drug business will be continued at the old stand, on the corner of Second and Court atreets, by the undersigned under the firm name of ction to the Senate.

The Frankfort Ycoman learns from the We find the article appended in the Concervative that Hon. JAMES A. McKEN-General Assembly as an end to be reached, Mt. Sterling Sentinel. It contains truths ZIE was nominated for re-election to the THOMAS M. GREEN.

IN OULLARS PER ANNUM. IN ADVANCE and the advocacy of certain principles or which it behooves the Democratic party of Legislature by the convention which met a given policy as the means to obtain that Kentucky to consider. The spirit and at Hopkinsville on the 14th inst. The intone indicate the writer to be one who de- dorsement of Mr. McKENZIE by so large sires the continued supremacy of the party, a voice having received thirty-six out of principles and opinions, and as utterly val- and his timely suggestions are offered in a fifty-seven votes in the convention- is a neless if to obtain it required a sacrifice of spirit of friendship and not of hatred. It well deserved compliment to the fidelity one's own convictions. What can there is so excellent that we give the article en- with which he discharged his duty to his constituents during his last term of service. We wrote some weeks ago an article calling and the Feoman congratulates him upon the prospect of his return to Frankfort next winter.

MARRIED.

DAVIS-GRAY-At the residence of the bride's father, Judge W. J. Steels, in Versallies, on the 7th inst., Col. J. F. Davis, of Shelby county, to Mrs. Mary P. Gray of Woodford.

CAHILL-WEEDON-On Wednesday, June 16th 1869, at the residence of the bride's father. O. M. Weedon, by Elder C. Keye, Mr. James Cahill to Miss Lucinda Weedon. BROWNING-In Germantown, May 28th, 1869; of Consumption, Mrs. S. P. Browning, daughter of als Col. Janese Conn. in the 39th year of her woodbford - EWALT. - On Wednesday morning, June 16th, by Elder Thos. P. Dudley, Wm. T. Woodford, late of Covinston, now of Owensboro, to Miss Minnie Ewalt, of Bourbon county. BOND—ZOLLICOPFER—At Columbia, Tenues see, on Thursday last, John B. Bond, a lawyer o that plage was united in marriage to Miss Octavia L Zollicoffer; and Mr. N. Guither, of Kentucky, to Miss Mary D. Zollicoffer. Both ladies are daugh ters of the late General Felix K. Zollicoffer. ROGERS—BRENT—In Calvary Church, Louis-ville, on the 22d instant, by the Rev. W. H. Platt, Captain Sidney J. Rogers to Miss Belle Brant, daughter of the late Thos. Y. Breut, Esq., both of Louisville.

ALLAN.—Died, at the residence of her son, Dr. S. Allan, in Lexington, Ky., on the 18th of June. 289, Mrs. Ann S. Allan, the widow of the late Hon. hilton Allan. DUDLEY — At his residence in Frankfort, Gen. Peter Dudley, in the 84th year of his age.

WITHERS.—In Cyathiana, on Thursdey morning, June the 17th, after a painful illness of five days, Stanley Withers, only son of J. S. and Kitty Withers, in the tenth year of hisage.

DUTCHER'S LIGHTNING FLY-KILLER! EATH TO THE LIVING! LONG LIVE THE KULLERS!

Sold by Dealers Everywhere.

!une29twawIm

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BALM IN GILRAD .- HEART'S EASE FOR YOUNG MEN, who have violated the laws of life, and desire o be restored to a better MANHOOD. Essays by benazolent physicians, sent in sealed letter envelpes, free of charge. Address, HOWARD ASSO-CIATION, Box P. Philadelphia. Pa.

NATURE IS THE GREAT PHYSICIAN. a fundamental principle of healing science. It is chief places in the synagogues are not for such as he. We had hoped that the day of proscription in the Democratic party was ended, but the character and antecedents of pel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to many of the men selected for the next Legis. strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept lature, the motives that prompted their selection, prove incontrovertibly that, in many portions of the State, it is useless for a civilian, a "stay-at-home" rebel, and hopelessly The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the sssible for anybody who ever wore the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The "blue" to be elected to any office when a patient who is wise chough to quit drugging and try champion of the "Lost Cause," may be found the BITTERS, soon feels as if he had taken a new who has any political aspirations.

We have no word of censure or blame for ticle ho is overloyed to find the streams of health any soldier, rebel or federal, and are not now coursing through his frame. It is prepared with discussing the merits of the one cause or the other. We are only stating what is passing around us and what everybody knows. And that these things are so, is due more to the intrigues and agitations of men who never smell powder on either side than to all other its. It is free from the objections so often urged against preparations of the kind. Age medical against preparations of the kind against preparations of the kind. Age medical against preparations of the kind against preparations ussing the merits of the one cause or the great care, and its component parts are entirely regepases combined. The majority of intelligent pair the system, and its operations are at once mild, rebel soldiers, who have been received back soothing, and efficient. All who have used HOS-into the walk of civil life, are disposed to and comfort.

Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect their merit; but their prejudices and old ar health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armed against the ascaults of " the ills that to a man, to the support of their army com- flesh is beinto." In health or sickness this tonic cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality for Sale.

FOR SALE .-- HAY RAKES
OF VARIOUS KINDS.
JOS. F. BRODRICK, Maysville. Ky. New Advertisements.

A SSIGNEE'S SALE.

07 % VALUABLE REAL AND PER-SONAL ESTATE OF THE UNION () y ster Saloons COAL AND OIL COMPANY.

Pursuant to an order of the United States Dis-trict Court for the District of Kentucky, unless pre-viously sold at private sale, I, the undersigned, as-signes of the Union Coal and Oil Company, of Mayaville, Ky., bankrapt, shall sell at public auc-tion, subject to the approval and ratification of said Court, at the Federal Court Hall, in Covington, Kenucky, on the Fifteenth Day of July, 1869, at ten of the clock in the forencen, all the right and title and interest of the said Union Coal and Oil Company, bankrupt, and of myself as assignee thereof, in and to all the real and personal estate of said bankrupt, to-wit: In the mining and other estate of said Company at Cannelton, in West Virginia, consisting of about 2,60 acres of land, on the Kanawha river, having mines of cannel and bitaminous coal, and fixtures, with the crade oil works situated thereon, and the retorts, condenders, tanks, steam engines and general apparatus for the manufacture of about fifty barrels per day of crude oil from cannel coal, with about forty-feur houses for laborers and one for superintendent, connected with the same, and in about 100 acres of land adjoining said 2,100 acres, subject to a life estate therein. Also the franchize of said Company and all other property, and evidences of property of said Company.

all other property, and evidence to the highest bidder, Company.

This sale will be positive to the highest bidder, and affords a rare opportunity for lavestmontin the region of the Kanawha, so soon to be in railway communication with the Atlantic ocean.

The terms of eale will be made known at the time and place of the public auction, requiring a fixed sum to be paid immediately by the purchaser, and the balance in cash on the delivery of the deed. Lawrence, Mass., June 25, 1869. wto

W. W. MANKER. W. B. CAMPBELL. J. RENNINTON W. L. MOCKBER. C. BAIRD, E. R. BELL.

Manker, Mockbee & Co.,

CHAMPION

SAW AND PLANING MILL,

DOORS, SASH and BLIND FACTORY.

TOBACCO HOGSHEADS MADE TO ORDER. RIPLEY, OHIO.

DEALERS IN PINE AND POPLAR LUMBER, SHINGLES, LATH, &c.

june 26twaw6m DISSOLUTION OF PARTNER now strong and bold, the sceptre will depart from our bands, and the lawgivers from between our feet. We say these things in sorrow, not in anger. We are grieved to see a powerful party rushing into self destruction. JNO. A. SEATON C. W. BLATTERMAN.

G. W. BLATTERMAN & CO.

GEO. W. BLATTERMAN & CO.
Successors to Seaton & Bisterman.
Marsylle, Kr., June 22. 'C. Inwest

New Advertisements. MAYSVILLE & BIG SANDY R. K.

For Sale at Public Auction! QN MONDAY, 12th DAY, JULY 1869 At the Court House door of Mason county, in the City of Maysville, Ky., I will expose to sale at public suction.

TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER,

on a credit of tweive months, (to satisfy the judgment of the Mason Circuit court, in favor of Harrison Taylor, W. H. Wadsworth and others, against the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad company, THE ENTIRE LINE OF SAID COAD, extending from the city of Maysville to the mouth of the Big Sandy river; togother with all the CHARTERED RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND PROPERTY

f said company. This road (incomplete) is located in the line of the Ohio river, with a maximum grade tot exceeding 15 feet to the mile, and can be cheapwhill.

not exceeding 15 feet to thomile, and can be chearly built.

At the city of Maysville it connects with the Maysville & Lexington railroad, now about to be Maysville & Lexington railroad, now about to be faished. At the mouth of the Big Sandy river, it will meet the Virginia road, the Chesapeake and Ohio: and will it is believed form one of the links in the passage of that road in its progress westward. At Cincinnati, Ohio, and Covington, Ky., sixty miles helow Maysville by actual survey, it will connect with many of the leading railroad lines to the west, south and south-west.

The Maysville and Big Sandy road, at Portsmouth, Ohio, fifty miles above the city of Maysville, will connect with he Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and also with a contemplated line from Portsmouth up the Valley of the Scioto river, to Columbus, the capitol of the State of Ohio.

The purchaser will be required to give bond with good personal security for the purchase a money at 12 months with interest from day fissle.

The SSOLLTTON.

DISSOLUTION.

The partnership heretofore existing between CHARLES A. LOVE and J. TRAVIS LOWRY, ander the firm name of GHAS, A. LOVE & COVE is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business of the firm will hereafter be conducted at the old stand by C. A. LOVE, who alone is authorized to settle up the business and sign the name of the old firm.

CHAS, A. LOVE, J. TRAVIS LOWRY. MOTICE TO THE STOCKHOLD

OTICE TO THE STOCK HOLDERS OF THEM. &L.R. R. Co., Nor. Div.
ORDERED.—That a call of five per cent. per month be made on all private subscriptions, to the M. &L. R. R. Co., Nor. Div. the sum to be paid to the Trensurer of the Company on the 1st day of each month commencing the 1st day of July next, and be it further ordered that those subscribers who have neglected to pay the first call of five per cent. on their subscriptions, be requested to call and pay the same to the Trensurer of the Company at once.

By order of the Board of Directors.

JAMES BARBOUR, Vice Prest.
HENRY PELMAN, See'y & Treasurer.
tw&wtdmayll

Insurance SOUTHERN MUTUAL

INSURANCE COMPANY,

LIFE

OF RENTUCKY.

OFFICE-Merchants' Bank Building, Main at between Fifth and Sixto. LOUISVILLE, KY.

Accumulated Capital - - $407,282 86

J. LAWRENCE SMITE President..... Vice President... JOHN B. SMITH

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. J. H. Lindenberger, John B. Smith, W. C. Hite, James B. Wilder, Geo. W. Norton. Lawrence Smith.

MEDICAL HOARD. Lewis Rogers, M. D., E. D. Force, M. D., T. E. Promere, Examining Physician, Mays-General Agent; address, Louisville, Ky

THROCKMORTON FORMAN.
Agent. Maysville, Ky. Confectionery.

SOMETHING NEW BUT NOT STRANGE!

GEORGE ARTHUR'S, No. 31, Mecondut.

I have opened my ice cream saloone this season for OYSTERS, where ladies and sentlemen can as all hours have them served in any style. They can also get a good cup of tea or coffee, bread and butter. Ac. 20 Oysters for sale by the can or half can, at lewest market rates.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING! I have an unusually large and well selected as-sortment of TOYS, designed expressly for the Obristmas trade. My stock of GEO ARTHUR. s good and nice. ...

FIRE! FIRE! FIREWORKS! .

I have just received from New Fork alarge and well assorted lot of Breworks for CHRISTMAS.

ome entirely new kinds, never before offered in MO MERCHANTS. A good stock of the best

* FIRE CRACKERS

GEORGE ARTHUR.
Mayaville, Dec. 6, 1866. Carriages

all low for CASH

STYLISH EQUIPAGES!

CARRIAGES, SUPERIOR IN STYLE AND FINISH

AND ATLOWEST RATES, REPAIRING BONE PROMPTLY ON LOWEST TERMSI : ALLEN & BURROUGHS. Second st., between Station and Wall, MAYSVILLE, RY. CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY

Having purchased Mr. Alien's interest in the stock and material of the Carriers Manufactory of . BIERBOWER & ALLEN I will continue the business at the OLD STAND, Where I am prepared to manufacture to order, and or sale, all kinds of Carriages and Bussies.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE, And at Reasonable Prices. R. C. BIERBOWER, Maysville, Ky. Law Cards.

T AW CARD. DARBOUR & COCHRAM, ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW MAYSVILLE, KY.

Coal Merchants &c. ATTENTION

Reduced Shipping Rates.

CHEAP COAL

The undersigned notify chippers of obsect that they have greatly reduced the price of. SHIPPING TOBACCO

PRODUCE,

AND OTHER

STORAGE AT THE MOST REASONABLE RATES

, WE HAVE ALSO REDUCED THE PRICE OF COAL!

which we will sell at 10 cents in the yard or at 1) cents delivered in the city. Parties desiring to make shipments or to purchase coal, will find it to their advantage to deal with POGUE, DUKE & CO. COME TO STAY!

Thompson & Piles

HAVE OPENED A NEW

COALYARD

at the lower grade, where they will keep constantly on hand a lerge amount of

Bituminous Coal. Orders left at C. L. STANTON'S Book store will

OFFICE No. 8, west Second street. China, Glass, & Oncensmare,

BARGAINS CHINA,

GLASSWARE, &C.

Maying a lot of goods of which we wish to dispose and desiring to accommodate those who wish to but at the lowest rates, we have opened

CHEAP TABLES

The articles on which will be sold at Astonishing Low Prices.

WE CALL ESPECIAL ATTENTION TO OUR China Tea Seta!

RECARDING OF COST.

BETTER BARGANS Can be had of us than at any other house in the

COME AND SEE! GALL AND BUY.

Maysville, Ky., Feb. 18, 1869, hardware.

TO MERCHANTS AND CONSUM HARDWARE,

CUTLERY, SADDLERY DOUBLE AND SINGLE SHOT GUNS. AMMUNITION, (all kinds,)

Riffes and Pistole

COACH TRIMMINGS, COACH WOOD IWORK, SPRINGS AND AXLES, AND SADDLERY,

Is now full and complete. We invite any persons wanting any goods in the above lines to sive us a cell and examine goods and prices. We fire deter-mined to cell goods as low as any house in the West. OWENS & BARKLEY. TERMS CASH.

BOOTS, SHOES, AND HATS (Direct from the Factories.) We have just been receiving the LARGEST STOCK of Boots, Shoes and Hats, ever before in this market. All our goods are from the VERT BEST NEW ENGLAND FACTORIES.

Coburn & Cladin's best Boots.

Ailen & Flore's Boots & Brogans.
Batchelder's Boots and Brogans.
Loring's Boots and Brogans.

A.J. White's celebrated Women's and Children's Francis Dane's celebrated Women's and Chit-dzen's Shoas and Brogans.

Boyd & Carey's celebrated Women's and Chil-dzen's Shoas dren's Shoes.
John Hart & Co.'s calebrated Women's and Children's Shoes.
Kimball's celebrated Wemen's and Misses' Shoes
And all other A I brands of calf, kip and morocco

Hats. Our Hat stock is large, comprising Fur, Broch, and Men's and Boys' Wool Hats, made to order. OWENS & BARKLEY. TERMS CASH. Books and Stationery

1869.SPRING TRADE!

1869. BOOKS and STATIONERY Embracing all Books ordinarily used in Schools FOOLSCAP PAPERS, LETTER PAPERS NOTE & BILLET PERS, ENVELOPES & INKS of all popular brands.

BLANK BOOKS and

OFFICE STATIONERY. Wall Paper & Window Shades, LADIES PORTMONIAS and FANCY ARTICLES. making a full line of Goods, which I well sell Wholesale and Resail arreasonable rates.

JAMES SMITH.

Clima, Glass and G. e ware R. ALBERT

NO CHEAP TABLES!

But the Cheapest House all Over

R. ALBERT'S OHINA PALACE!

Tremendous Reduction of Prices!

CHINA, GLASS, QUEENSWAKE
LOOKING GLASSES,
SILVER, SILVER PLATED AND BRITANNIA WARE, COAL OIL LAMPS AND CHANDELIERS, TEA-TRAYS
AND WAITERS, JAPAN-NED TOILET SETS.

TABLE CUTLERY.

In Ivory, Silver-plated, Bone. India Rubber and Wood Hanales, A very large and beautiful actori-

FLOWER VASES, COLOGNE SETS!

-4XD-FANCY GOODS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS. LARGEST STOCK OF FINE

SOLID SILVER. SILVER-PLATED

-AND-Britannia Ware!

In the city, at oad TIME GOLD PRICES. NO HUMBUG!

To Country Merchants, BRING IN YOUR CHEAPEST CINCINNATI, PORTSMOUTH, LEXINGTON OR OTHER BILLS, AND HAVE THEM

Discounted on Better Terms. ALL GOODS WARRANTED TO BE EQUAL TO SAMPLES

AND AS REPRESENTED will be taken back at my expense forward and Try it and sore your money. | R. ALBERT.

No. 35 Second street Mosth side R. ALBERT 35 EAST SECOND STREET.

20,000 YARDS OF

CARPETS

MATTINGS

OIL CLOTHS At Lowest New York Prices! BEAUTIFUL INGRAINS AND HEMPS, at 35, 40, 45, and 50 cents.

Beautiful Ingrains, large and bright patterns, at 60, 70, and 75 cents.

All Wool. 2 pirs, from 1,00 to 1.50.

Elegant Erin Brussels, 63 and 75 cents.

3 pirs, American and boat English Brussels; all, qualities, 31.50 ce 32 00.

White, Check, Fancy and Genuine Pagede

MATTINGS. OLL CLOTHS, from 15 inches to 13 feet ride. Brussels and Velvet Rugs and Marts; Cucca Mattings, for Churches, Stores and offices a Beautiful English and French Feit Carpets and Drugswitz. the Enget goods in American market, Very cleap.

TABLE AND PIANO COVERS.

BEDSPREADS, TOWELS AND NAPKING. Window Curtains, Gilt Cornices CURTAIN PINS ANDHOLDERS, ETC.

2,000 WINDOW SHADES! Of all sizes and colors, including all the let ALSO, A LARGE LOT OF NEW YORK AUCTION GOODS!

At Wholesale and Rotail, AT AUCTION PRICES! Carpets & Oil Cloths Of all kinds, at Wholesale and Retail. Ca hatched and Made to Order. — Call and examine my very large and beauti

AL ALBERT'S Chine Palece. WALL PAPER

20,000 Pieces of American, Euglish & French WALL PAPERS of BURDERS, including the very latest and most beautiful patterns of Parifer and Mail Papers, in great variety, at from life to $1.00 per Bolt, at B. ALBERT'S CHIEF PALACE.

PIANOS! PIANOS!

STRINWAY & SONS'
CHAS. M. NTIRPE'S
MARSHALL and WENDELL'S
and other makes of Planos, at a Reduction of $25 to $100 Of Cincinnati prises.

With written Guarantee for 10 years. R. ALBERT,

CHINA PALACE SAIN MEGOND STREET.

Cigars and Cobacco. GOLDI GOLDII GOLDIII CAN BE MADE

STORE NOTALISE A T PURCHASING FOUR CLASS CIGARS & TOBACCO

S M. SHAPUR.

MANBYILLE KY

They call a "berber" a tonsorial professor. Hauckey's String Band discoursed delight fal music at the Court House last evening. It gave an additional charm to the poet's exquisit recitations. Charles M. Gibbons, an old citizen of Bracken county and for several years a resi- roads are passable. dent of this place, died a few days since near

"Palmer's Vegetable Cosmetic Lotion has cured my face of the Barber's Itch of over nine years standing," writes F S. Dewey, of Carrolton, Montgomery county, Ohio.

Serious Accident - On Monday, Mr. Thomas Glassford fell from the roof of a house in Mayslick, where be had been at work and accounts he was suffering greatly.

some days since, is recovering from his injurice. He is now able to walk about. The ken in the next sixty days. would-be assassin has not yet been arrested.

Another Enemy .- We learn that the farmers in the Mayslick neighborhood were startled a few days ago by the appearance of the army worm in large numbers, threatening destruction to the growing crops. We hope their fears may not be realized

The Pres Christian Commonwealth, published at Louisville, has been consolidated with the Christian Observer, of Richmond Va. Subscribers to the former paper will. for the remainder of their unexpired sabscriptions, receive the Observer

Monorary. -The degree of Doctor of Divin ity was conferred on the Rev. A. W. Chambliss, pastor of the Baptist church in this city. by the Baylor Leniverat its last commencement. This, we believe, is the second time Dr. Chambles has had that honor conferred ric Nic at Esculapia. There will be a pic nic at Esculapia Springs next Saturday, July 3d. David Arthurs, who resides at the Springs, invites everybody to come and bring bis wife or sweetheart. A large crowd is ex pected from Orangeburg, Tollesboro, and Mt. Cartael, and the surrounding country

Dr. J. C. Beck, the contumacious witness in the victims mulcred by him as the manager of the Kentucky Mutual Life Insurance Company most devoutly hope he may be retained in custody the balance of his lite.

Will. T. Manly, corresponding secretary o the Montgomery and Bath Stock Society, will accept our thanks for a list of the premiums, and a complimentary to the fair, to be held August the 17th, 18th, and 19th. First day. cattle, sheep and hogs; second day, blooded and barness borses; third day, saddle borses. mules, jacks and jennets will be shown. The premiums offered are liberal

S. F. Pollock for $2,000. Prye Norris par-Grounds for $4,000. We did not learn the ted in pushing them forward

The Harvest .- Some of the farmers of Ma-Monday. The danger from the midge has Mill at Ripley long monopolized the trade in been much exaggerated, but little injury hav- their line in this part of the State, and a to be apprehended now is from rust, the spell the spirited opposition that has been estabof rainy weather being quite unfavorable. But strong hopes are entertained of a hounti-

The Riehmond Register says: Gen. Green Ciny Smith, late Governor of Montana Terrial template erecting a branch of their establishtory, but more recently a citizen of Madison county; presched at the Republican (Baptist) Church on Sunday last. We understand that Gen. Smith intends to devote the remaining

Election of Directors .- On Tuesday Harrison Taylor was elected Director of the Maysville and Lexington Railroad Company, Morthern Division, to fill the vacancy occusioned by of Mr. Taylor's character and experience was work is meant.

The Frankfort Yeoman says: In response to a card numerously signed by the principal citizens of Maysville, Major Henry T Stanton has consented to give a reading from his poems in that city on the evening of the 24th inst. The conception is an excellent one and we hope our friend will not limit his ap pearance before the public to his own city, for, becatiful and full of merit as are his poetic productions, they receive an additional grace from the finished elecation of their that the ancient reputation of the house for John D. Champlin, of St. Louis, was but $700

Celebration of the Fourth. The several Fire Companies of the city, will celebrate the Fourth of July by a procession in the city and to public favor. a Pic Nic in the woods of the late John R. Key near the city: The Fourth being Sunday this year, the celebration will be on Safurday, the 3rd just The parade will be at about 8 o'clock in the morning, at the close of which the Companies will repair to the woods There will be good music, and an abundance

Good! We are informed that the sale of sickets in the Grand Prize Scheme is progressing finely. The determination of the Com missioners, appointed under the Special Charter given by the Legislature of Kentucky, to and, as a consequence they will probably be compelled to have the drawing come off considerably before the day appointed. There are only sixty-two thousand, eight hundred and sixty-four tickets in the whole scheme, and we advise our friends who design doing so, to procure their tickets while they can

Amateur Harlotry .- A writer in the Round Table says that "walking up Fifth Avenue a fine afternoon of last week, he saw during on bour young girls by the score who lit is painful to write it, but it is true-had posi-

A Convenience, -A tri-weekly express has ronized and will be kept up so long as the Centre College.-The Danville Advocate says: The Board of Trustees of this institution met here last Wednesday. The following gentlemen were elected to fill the several chairs: President Rev. Dr. Marquis, of Chi cago; Chair of Greek and Modern Languages. Prof. De Sote; Chair of Latin, Prof. J. W. Chenault; Chair of Mathematics, Prof. J. C Randolph. Prof. Beatty will remain a membroke his shoulder, arm and thigh. At last ber of the Faculty as heretofore. The Chair of Belle Lettres is yet to be filled. If all these gentlemen accept "old Centre" will have an Recovering Willoughby Bradley, who was able and efficient corps of professors. The so desperately wounded by Andrew Burgle, Committee also ordered the erection of the new College edifice, and ground will be bro-

> June 25th, between the Second Nine of the Forest Queen and Stonewalls, of Maysville, resulted in favor of the former in a score 56 to 44

McDaniels r. f.

Home runs, Forest Queen-9; Stonewalls, 1 Game called at 2 o'clock; ended 64. Umpire-T. Y. Payne.

Scorers-Henry Wood, Forest Queen; Thos.

The grading on this road is almost completed, and workmon are now engaged in break ing the rock to be used in McAdamizing it It will be completed and ready for travel to the Mason and Lewis line, three and a quarter miles from Orangeburg, by October 1st of the present year. The part running through Mason is well made and will be a serviceable road, but that in Lewis is quite indifferent. The old road is miserable, hilly, the Graig-Sprague case, is still confined in rutty, rocky, one sided, and miry so that prison in Chicago for contempt of court. This always it must be traveled at a dead slow fellow richly deserves imprisonment, and pace, and during a great part of the year it is almost impassable. Much credit is due the ed by every mark indicative of culture, breeding forward the work.

The Mason and Lewis Turnpike. - It is gratifying to witness the progress toward completion made by this road. At Kennediy's Creek it connects with the Maysville and Mt. Carmel Turnpike, thence it turns up the Ohio head and then crosses by an easy grade a ridge until it reaches Phillips Creek, which it follows for some distance. The grading has been done the greater part of the way to the Mason and Lewis line, and much of the rock Transfer of Property. In Germantown last has been already put on. It is hoped that the week Mrs. Frazee sold her frame residence to road will be completed and ready for travel ed her rushing silks, Gradgrind soured joyto the Lewis line during the coming fall, and chased the two story frame residence and the a mile of the road has been built from Equalitobacco warehouse occupied by D. Norris, for zation towards Maysville. The building of flow of pathetic fancy was content to $2,000. Maj. J. B. Harris purchased the these pikes will do much for the western part the put the same dreary sphere behind him becatiful residence nearly opposite the Fair of Lewis county, and the people should be uni-in calling attention to the advertisement of son commenced cutting their early wheat on this firm in another column. Their Planing ing been done by that insect. The chief evil large part of it is retained notwithstanding lished at Maysville during the last year. All their work is excellent, both work and prices giving satisfaction to customers. We learn that Mesars Manker, Mockbee & Company conment in Mayaville, and the lot occupied by W. T. Ocras a lumber yard has been spoken of as the probable location. We hope this design will be carried out, and we are sure these the concluding expressions of congratulatory years of his life to the cause of Christianity sentlemen would meet with a cordial receptange. as promulgated by the Esptist denomina- tion from the husiness men of our city. There is already trade enough here for two Planing Mills, and this will be largely increased by the completion of the railroad. the resignation of James Barbour. We learn the partnership between John A. Seaton and selves avil prophets as well as prophets of that it is his purpose to accept. The selection is George W. Blatterman in the drug busi- evil; while those who have stood by and ada most excellent one. The presence of a man | ness has been dissolved by mutual consent. | vocated the enterprise through good and evil much needed. His election indidences that bouse with which his name has been honorably about their zeal or cool their enthusiasm, have move from the city. The husiness will be men from a distance who came for the purwhich have one for him commercial success contract was awarded to Charles B. Child and social respect. The public may be sure & Co. of St. Louis. We learn that the hid of

tend the meeting of the incorporators of the road in complete running order, machinery Obio and Southern Railroad Company, at | and all, -for $682,010. This bid includes more Chillicothe, on Friday next, July 2d. This rolling stock than the estimate of Mr. Glent, enterprise seems to afford the quickest and the Engineer. Mr. Child will have part of of refershments on the grounds. The public tion by railroad with the eastern cities, and ing week, and will have the cars running are invited to attend. the construction of a road from Maysville to to Elizaville by November, in time to supthe Pennsylvania Central Railroad intend to tractors will complete the moad faster than back the Obio and Southern Railroad, and if the Company will be able to pay for it. this is true its completion will be a certainty. Mr. Child, the successful bidder, was the have Every Ticket Sold, before the drawing That Company possess abundant capital assistant engineer of the old road under L. L. which they expend freely in the direction Robinson, and really did most of the work. pointed out by their interests. If they are in While there were many reflections cast upon tral Kentucky by way of Maysville, the New- tached to Mr. Child, who did his duty faithfully trail Kentucky by way of Maysville, the New-tached to Mr. Child, who did his duty faithfully from Pennsylvania on account of particips ark and Maysville railroad will be built as and came out of the affair with clean garments tion in the whisky insurrection, we have also soon as our railroad is completed to Car and unspotted hands; retaining the full confi-

Church Wedding in Mayslick .- On Thursday evening last, Mayslick witnessed for the first time a wedding in church. The hour set for the ceremony was 86 o'clock, the place contract will be complied with, and the work the new Bantist church; but long before the the new Baptist church; but long before the appointed hour, the novelty of the occasion house was crowded to its fullest capacity and een established between Orangeburg and every one was on tip toe to see the expectfolleshore, to run in connection with the ed ones who were to link their lives together. Maysville and Mt. Carmel omnibus. On cut the cable, and launch down the stream of Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, the ex- life. At ten minutes past nine, the expectant press leaves Tollesboro at 6 o'clock in the bridegroom, Mr. Berry Taylor, and the intendmorning and arrives in Orangeburg in time ed bride, Miss Mattie B. Metcalf, followed by o connect with the omnibus coming to Mays- a train of air attendants each, made their deille. Returning on the same days it leaves but, and instantly a battery of eyes was level-Orangeburg immediately after the arrival of led upon them. After a benetiful and approthe omnibus from Mayaville, and reaches priate ceremony by the Rev. Mr. Keys, of Tollesboro about supper time. It is well pat- Lewisburg, and a prayer by Elder H. B. Taylor, of the Christian church, the twain were pronounced to be one flesh in the sight of God and man. Without waiting for the good wishes and congratulations of friends the party instantly retraced their steps, and left the guests to indulge in such comments as they chose to make.

The Celebration near Helena .- On Thursday last the Masonic fraternity of Mason and Lewis counties, met in the rooms of Lucien Luttrell, near Helena, to celebrate the anniversary of their Patron Saints. There were besides Masons a number of persons present, numbering in all very near, if not quite, two thousand. An imposing procession was formed in the lodge room of the craft at Helena, and marched to the grounds preceded by a band of splendid music. The Hon. E S. Fitch, Grand Master of the Masons in the State of Ken-The match game of Base Ball, on Friday, tucky, took the stand as the orator of the day, and for about one hour and a half delighted the audience with one of the most elegant and fluent speeches upon the subject in view, that many of them had ever listened to. At the conclusion of the address of the Grand Master dinuer was announced. There was a long, wide, and bountiful table, which literally grouned beneath its luxurious weight, spread for the craftsmen, and they discoursed its viands with hearty relish. Other parties had also brought baskets richly ladened with 41 eatables, which they spread upon the ground and invited all to come and partake of the tenst. After dinner, addresses were made by the Rev. Mr. Zabby, of Elizaville, and Messrs. Blaisdell and Gill of this city. Damon, too, with his band of shrill blowers was on the ground discoursing his sweetest music. A platform was erected and the young people"tripped the light fantastic" to their heart's intent, when the crowd dispersed, every one being in a fine humor, and well pleased with the entertainment of the day. The Marshals preserved the hest possible order, and there, was no disturbance of any kind upon the ground. One encouraging feature was the absence of whisky. .

Mr. Stanton's Readings. - The entertainment last evening was brilliant and charming be yourd description. The andience which greet prized over his better genius (not meaning ed the debut of the young poet was distinguish myself), and decided his fate. Lord Byron ed the debut of the young poet was distinguishenterprise of the gentlemen who are push- ing and taste. It was decorous, refined, discrimnating and delicately appreciative; and those who were fortunate enough to be present will scorcely be accused of indulging extravagant sentiments of mutual admiration when they gave utterance to the satisfaction all must have felt in witnessing that River to Ball Creek, which it follows to the gracious reaction against the merciless despotism of their daily life-against a gross, monotonous despotism of matter, circumstance and fact. For the moment, Poesy reigned supreme, and the earthliest spirits bowed to the enchanting sway of poetic art. Learning smoothed his wrinkled front and Levity hushously beyond the cold, bleak, world of "facts," and even Podsnap, touched by the rhythmic All, "for the nonce," dropped into poetry:"-all felt the subtle inspiration of the hour ; -all were always willing to contribute his share. So far Manker, Mockbee & Co .-- We take pleasure accent of the poet's voice; and life gathered a nobler grace from the poetic interlude of music, sentiment, and dream. A critical notice of the readings is simply out of the question. It were an ungracious task to analyze an impression which in its general effect was so pleasing. But not only ungracious; it were impossible. The secret moving quality of these vocal interpretations s an exquisite something which evades and defies the analytic touch. The spirit of the poet's own 'Nastartium Flower' is not more dainty or ethereal. It was this indefinable something which elicited for the gifted reader the tribute of enraptured attention and

The Contract Awarded .- Those who have wished disaster to the Mayaville and Lexington Reilroad Comepany will now hide their diminished heads; those who have Dissolution.-By reference to an advertise- jeered at the scheme from the beginning as ment in another column it will be seen that Utopian and impracticable must confess them-Mr. Seaton retires from a connection with the report; permitted no temporary reverse to ansociated for more than thirty years, and every reason for encouragement. During the we regret to learn that it is his purpose to re- present week the city has been full of gentle carried on at the well known stand on the pose of examining the line of the road and corner of Court and Second Streets by George the condition of the work already done. W. Blatterman & Company. Mr. Blatterman and of bidding for the contracts for complethas long been known in the community as an ing the road. We understand that the bidactive and energetic man of business, of dings were quite spirited and some of them strict probity and perfectly reliable, qualities approximating very closely. On Friday the dealing in pure drugs and in articles of the exceeding that of Mr. Child, the successful best quality in their line will be fully sustain bidder. Mr. Child contracts to do the ed by the present firm. In referring to their graduation and mesonry, tunnelling, card, we take pleasure in commending them make the side tracks, supply the rails and ties and lay the track, make the bridges, furnish the water tanks, provide the cars and We hope that some of our citizens will at lengines and hand cars, and, in short, put the most practicable opportunity for a connec- his force at work within the follow-Newsrk would be of almost incalculable ad- ply the people of Fleming with their winvantage to the Maysville and Lexington Rail- ter coal. The road will be completed There seems to be no doubt but that to Carlisle by September 1st, 1870. The con-arnest in seeking communication with Cen- the Chief Engineer, no suspicion was ever atdence of the Directory and the people. Since that time he has had large and successful experience in the construction of railroads, and our people may feel every confidence that his done. cheir persons and faces with the express design of being mistaken for courtesan; and he rather bluntly adds that "girls who think they look like wantons and take pleasure in the place, with the question, "are there have look like wantons and take pleasure in the place, with the question, "are there have changed their running time. On and after the coming Monday, they will leave have a seat which would command a fair view of the situation. The guests came pouring in by twes, threes and fours till the with the afternoon train to Cincinnation. Chie and Southern Ballroad: OFFICE BOARD OF INCORPORATORS.

Синласотие, Онто, June 21, 1869 The members of the Board of Incorporator of the Ohio and Southern Railroad Company are hereby notified that there will be a meet ing of the Roard at the City Hall Chillionthe Ohio, at 2 o'clock, P. M. on Friday, July 2d, 1869, to consider the report of W. W. Graves, in relation to the proposed line. A full attendance is desired. WM. WELSH, Prest. W. C. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

Some Fresh Gossip About Lard Byren Madame Guiceioli, in her recent book about Byron, has brought to light an old friend of the poet's, R. Belgrave Hoppner, who writes as follows to the editor of the Athengum. "I regret to learn that Madaine Guiccioli has made so free with my name and opinions respecting Lord Byron. I hope she does not say that I enjoyed her acquaintance at Venice, for although I cannot absolutely say I never saw her, I can safely assert the next thing to it. Lord Byron was always very kind to me, and having three horses at the Lido(the long Sometimes he called for me on his way there, sometimes I went to his house to meet him On one of these occasions, while he was at breakfast, a female crossed the room, enteron one side and leaving it at the opposite door, in whose appearance there was nothing to attract attention, and I act - ly took her for one of the maids of the house, learning ony from him after she had passed out that she was Madame Guiccioli. If I had met her five minutes later I would not have recognized her, so little had I observed her. "I certainly did not approve the life Lord

Byron led at Venice, and as far as I felt my-self warranted in so doing, never scrupled to tell him so; but we were nearly of the same age, which, with our different positions in life. would only have rendered me ridiculous if the all my intercourse with him, I almost invariably found him cheerful and good natured : or if at moments he was less so, he accounted for it by saying that his foot caused him much pain. This I have no doubt was very often the case. In a previous letter I have said he led "a foolish disreputable life," on which account I well remember to have told him be made himself ridiculous in the eyes of every one, and I have little doubt it was his disgust with the very life he was leading which made him take a dislike to Veuice, and glad of the Madame Guiccioli, offered him to quit it altogether. It was pretty evident to me that he gether. It was pretty evident to me that he Dunbar and her brother in-law, Mr. Geo. Tip at first cared little for her, however much his ton, returned to Dunbar's house the same vanity may have been flattered on seeing the rank in society, so different from the other women he had knowe since his actival in Venice; and it depended on the toss up of a half-peuny whether he should follow

Ravenna or return to England To this latter step I strongly advised him; out the dread of the reception he might meet there, and the encouragement he received from Madame Guiccioli, to follow her, prewas occasionally annoyed by nence of English travelers, who forced their way into his house, or followed him about a but he was far from showing any disgust with them in general, frequently coming to meet strangers of an evening at my house, though be well knew when he came there that he lisposition, but think that the misanthropy, that figured as part of the characters in his ear ly writings, was merely a poetical fiction. His ove of pleasure, and the eagerness with which he pursued it, certainly seemed to prove him o have been of anything but a melaucholy disposition. During the Carnival at Ver was a constant attendant at the Ridotto, a kind of masked ball, where he witnessed scenes which supplied him with material for his Beppo."

"He had always a box at the Venice Theater during the seasou. He passed his evenings at one or other of three houses occupied by Venetian ladies, where strangers had an opportunity of seeing something of Venetian society, and readily took part in any amuse-ment that was offered him, to which he was ion, that he was not of a misanthropical dis position; but this has nothing to do with the life he led at Venice; and she is decidedly wrong in asserting that I was in constant companionship of an afternoon, unless she allades to our rides together on the Lido, as came to my house, or when we met in the have mentioned. I visited him sometime h his box at the theater, but this is not what

Madame Guiccioli would wish to infer. Lady A who saw Lord Byron fre quently at Genes, and also Madame Guic-cioli, assured me he went to Greece to get away from her, which I can well believe, as he had lived four years with here-three more than according to his own account it was his nature to live with any woman.

The Madrid Evil .- The Remedy The recent graduation of so many medical students from our various colleges gives a point to the following remarks by the Medical Mirror, of London:
The profession of medicine in the Fuited

ates is suffering most acutely from a perfect deluge of licensing medical bodies, which are manufacturing to the atmost of their bent full-blown medical men.
The American Medical Association intends to take this matter into serious considera-It is, doubtless, difficult to steer clear b tween the Scylla of infringing the liberty of subject, of licensing bodies, on the one liand, and the Charybdis of a profession awarqued by men possessed of the extreme mini-of medical knowledge on the other. The remedy is easy, and it is one that, be re long, must be applied to our English censing institutions.

The American Medical Council, supposing ch council to exist, must re-examine all can dates possessed of the degrees of the various tensing bodies, and then ratify or annul the diplomas of the vandidates.

The Eaglish Medical Council roust, to pro tect the profession from the "competition downward" of our various licensing bodies, also institute a central Board of Examiners to inquire into the diplomas and the actual knowledge, general and medical, of the individuals presenting themselves for registra

In America the competition between licen sing bodies is on a gigantic scale. When two or three doctors happen to be gathered together, it is perfectly competent for them, not merely to found a teaching institution, but it is permitted to them to grant licenses for, practice, as the various State local governevery medical doctrine, whether eclectic, hy-dropathic or homopathic.

The First Rourbon Whisky. The Paris Kentuckian says: "That manued by parties who emigrated from Pennsylva nis about the year 1790. Uncle Jo Shawhan. himself one of the emigrants, being then boy 10 years of age, tells us the first distiller in the county was erected by Jacob Spears, the grand-father of Captain Ed. Spears & Co... distillers. The distillery was near where the noted manufactory of W. H. Thomas now stands. Two negroes would fell trees near by and haul them to the distillery, while Mr. Spears would entable simber into suitable size, istill, go to the mill, and also attend a fine horse he had brought with him.

Captain John Hamilton, who ran away heard claims to have first distilled in this re gion. His whisky was in such demand that he never had cause to barrel it, as purchasers came from far and near to receive it as it came from the still. Capt. Hamilton died only a few years since, and about 100 years.

THE inhabitants of the banks of the Caspian See recently witnessed a singular phenomenon. Among the islands studding that vast lake is one that contains several wells of naphtha or petroleum ail. A large quantity of the inflammable liquid escaped from the source and spread itself over the surface of the lake, and having by some chance, caught fire, the Caspian Sea was, seen blazing up like a bowl of punch, only with this difference, that it had a superficies of 16,850 square leagues. Louisville, has ceased to exist as such, being mers spoke encouringly of the crops and consolidated with the Observer, of Richmond, especially for the wheat crop.—Mr. Sterling occurred in ancient times,

STATE NEWS.

Singular Suicing —We have just learned the particulars of the snicide of the old negro n Clover Bottom, which we briefly notice come weeks since, and it precents one the most deliberate cases of felo d - se on a cord. It appears that he was most unhappy in his domestic relations, and, after a sharp quarrel with his wife, he put on his most ragged suit of clothes, informed where his little stock of money was concealed, and walked four or five miles across the country till he arrived in sight of the house he married in some forty years ago. Going into a thicket was banging from a limb above, and twisting it around his neck, brought it under his arm, and clasping it tight to his hands, raised his eet from the ground, and hanging in this way until life was extinct. If he had put his feet o the ground or let go the vine at any time, strangulation would not have ensued. But when tound, several days afterwards, he was still clasping the vine with the grasp of grim death.—Woodford Weckly.

CHINESE LABOR - Every now and then the legraph brings intelligence that a ship load Chinese have landed at the port of San rancisco, and yesterday we were advised that five thousand of these people were wend-ing their way towards the field of the Sunny South. This is but a small lot, but other in-stallments will follow until this class of laborres will be numbered by the tens and hun-dreds of thousands, and they will supplant negroes in the South, because they furnish the full requirement of the planter, which is reliable labor and cheap.

We observe in this connection that a meeting of citizens has been called at Memphis to ise means for securing the Chinese. Alas for Samho-his occupation is gone .-

JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, for a year or two past the President of the Agricultural College, has resigned. He is to be succeeded by Elder Isaac Errett, late editor of the Cleveland (Ohio) Standard. The parting scene between Prof. Pickett and his pupils was quite affec ting; many of the latter were in tears as they bid farewell to their President and his estimable lady .- Danville Advocate.

From the Richmond Register, June 18.1

HORRIBLE TRACEDY. - A horrible trugedy cured near the late residence of the tunate subject of this sketch on Monday even ing last. From all that we can learn in regard the affair, it seems that Dud Dunbar was in the habit of mistreating and shamefully abusing his wife. Our informant states that or the evening above mentioned he had whinned ection, he about this time formed with father (Mr. Powhattan Shearer, a worthy citizen of our county), who accompanied by Mrs evenidg. Dunbar at first refused to open the door, but, learning that it was his wife, open ed the door, stating that he would finish the -his language was too had to put in print. Mr. S. informed him that he would attend to her to that matter when Dunbar drew a revolver and was only prevented from shooting by his wife who rushed between them. After some little conversation, Dunbar seemed more caim and informed Tipton that a woman livin about a mile distant was the cause of all th disturbance, and that if he would accompany him he would prove the fact and burn house in the bargain. Both started for the ise, but when about half way across an open field through which they had to pass Dunbar suddenly draw his revolver, telling Tipton that he had him in the place he wan ted him. The latter in an instant drew a revolver and fired, the ball taking effect in Dunwould not find us alone I do not believe but a breat, who fell and expired without a that Lord Byron was naturally of a saturnine struggle. His body-re-nained in the field all His body-re-nained in the field all night and was removed the following morning As the case will receive a legal investigation, we forbear further comment

Hypsophosta. - The same dog which bit Mr luxon's mule some weeks ago, an account of horse belonging to Messrs. J. P. Headley & Co., and last, week it went furiously mad. Beng turned out in a lot it rushed at everything that came into the inclosure, and bit a negro man, who had the temerity to go in was, on the shoulder very severely. This is evidence that hydrophobia still lurks about and may break out at anytime. The people in the suburbs complain that the dog ordi nance has bad very little effect to rid them of their canine nuisances, and it has been suggested that the bonus for killing them be ex-tended, so as to permit boys to perform this the canines in a tract. There is still about a THIEF DUCKED. - During the fire in George town last Sunday week, a thief was caught stealing a pair of boots, and next day he was aken to the spring branch near town, and had he rite of ducking administered to him in he most imposing manner. After he was thoroughly parified, till he looked more like a drowned rat than a biped, he was allowed one hour in which to make his preparations and leave town. He left in the stipulated time, denouncing the hospitalities of George-town at a furious rate,—Ibid.

Joy Rixco and John Grubbs got into a quarrel in our town, on Monday last, and came to blows. After knocking for some seconds, a pistol dropped from Grabbs' pocket and "went if," scattering the crowd in every direction, fortunately, however, no one was hurt.

After fighting for some time a la Allen & McCoole they were separated. We understand that the difficulty grew out of the warning that vas received by Graphs a short time since, received him to leave the wate-Graphs acsing Ringo of being concerned in the mat-r. Neither of the men were injured beyond-few single bruises. Mt. Sterling Senti-

Howard, that he has at the Montgomery Distillery, a plg that has six toes on each ore-foot. The feet resemble those of a dog nd each toe has a separate nail upon it With this, and the four-legged Chicken, we nter Craddock to bring on his menstrasities.

The Lebanon Cherian aye "A most daring and determined attempt to commit a rape was made in Adair county, about four miles from Columbia last Monday night. Two young ladies, daughters of a respectable farmer, were sleeping to the upper robm of their father's dwelling, which is a long house. The would be ravisher made his way into their chamber by climbing up at the side of the chimney to the window. The young ladies rere awakened by the touch of his hands, plac-d upon the head of one and the feet of the other and acreamed out in extreme terror for assistance. Their father rushed up stairs promptly with a pistol and fired several shots at the retreating form of the villian, who by this time was out of the house. A negro named Hendrickson has been arrested and charged with the crime, and is now in jail at Lebanoo, in default of bail. Intense xcitement prevails in the community and threats of summary justice have been made.

dal, dam Anser's dam by imp. formerly a member of Congress from this State, is to be retained as Minister at Denmark, where he has been for five or six years. The President removed Black borse, 4 years old, J. M. Graves, Ky. him during the spring assaion of the Senate, and named General Andrews of Minasona, as successor, and he was so confirmed by the Senate. On further investigation, however, he President has concluded that it will post to leave Yeaman there, and this is the reason for the recent transfer of Andrews to Sweden, which place ex-Senator Carlile wantmeets, Yeaman will be renominated for Den-mark and Andrews for Sweden, to which court he is now on his way.

that nearly all the wheat crops have been county, for $134 per head Messrs, L & H. harvested. They report the grain of excel-also invested in a number of amount horses, lent, quality and hetter than for some which they are preparing for the Southern years, past. We hear of no engagements or market. Medium 2-yr old mules commanded salas, as yet, though we understand parties $95 per head.—Lex Obs. also, as yet, training we understand parties in town have agencies to buy whenever the narket fully opens. We notice one agent covington, 63 head of hogs at at 31 cents, ecciving a large lot of sacks a few days long and another narty have a good lot on receiving a large let of sacks a few days since, and another party have a good lot on hand all of which looks like business. Ownand—all of which looks like business. Owing to the unprecedented fine crops of wheat in all the Western States, we fear our farmers will have to consent to a much lower price for their wheat than we at first anticipated, and we expect that about $1.00 per hunds will be near than the state of naphtha or petroleum dil. A large quante we expect that about $1.00 per hushel ty of the inflammable liquid escaped from the will be near the opening price. Hickman

SALES OF LAND AND STOCK

[From the Lex. Statesman The annual stock cale of Woodburn Farm, ear Spring Station, Woodford county Ky. J. Alexander, Esq. Proprietor, took piace in Wednesday last. It was largely attended and several States were represented in the list of purchasers. The stock was all in good condition with a few exceptions, and in those instances the injury was hut slight. The bid-ding was spirited and the sale lasted about four hours, realizing the handsome sum of $25,050. The average price paid for the colts was $583.68; for the fillies $306.24; for the other stock, including thoroughbred brood mares, $222.04; for both colts and fillies, $423.44; and on all the atock, $347.91. Everything passed off well, not a single accident happened. Appended is the list of soles.

THOROUGHBRED BROOD MARES. Fanny G, foolded in 1845, by imp. Mar-rave. Capt. Beard, Lexington, Kentucky-Grisette, foolded 1848, by imp. Glencoe

Col. Nelligan, New-Orleans, $60 Flora G. was withdrawn. Minnie Mansfield, foalded 1849, by imp Glencoe, with colt foal by Planet, Col. Br New York, $455.

Linda, foaled 1860, by imp. Seythian, with foal by Planet, Colonel Bruce, New York $330. Grenada, foaled 1853, by Revenue, M. Calloway, Ky., $155.

THOROUGHBRED COLTS POALED 1868 Chestnut, by imp. Australian, dam Kate Quinn, J. J. McKianor, Ill. $310. Chestnut, by imp. Australian, dam Rescue-F. Bissick, Ky., $480. Bay, by Asteroid, dam Bay Leaf. Colone Bruce, N. Y., $1,100. Chestnut, by Asteroid, dam Alabama, D. Chestnut, by Asteroid dam Emms Weight Bryant, Ky., $380.

Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Lig. Mardis ol. Melligan, $205. Brown, by Asteroid data Mies Carter Col Nelligan, $360. Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Cocal R. Miller, Ky., $325. Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Canary Bird Col. Bruce, $315. Bay, by Asteroid, dam Little Miss, S. Bey, ant, $215. rown, by Asteroid, tham Maria Innis -Bay, by Asteroid, dam Lavender. Colonel Ray, by Lexington, dam Mildred. Goronel Bruce, $1,90.). Bay, by Bonnie Scotland, dam Bay Flower Bissicks, $220.

Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Schottische, S. Bryant, $380 Chestuut, by imp. Australian, dam Flora G. Maj. Allman, Tenn., $110. Bay, by Bonnie Scotland, dam Bonnet, S. Chestnut, imp. Australian, dam Jeonie H

Mr. Sprague, Ohio, $180.

Bay, by imp. Australian, dam Mattie Gross. Chestnut, by imp. Australian, dam Char otte Buford, R. P. White, N. Y., $240 THOROUGHBRED FILLIES FOXLED 1863.

Bay, by Lexington, dam Novice D. Swi

Bay, by Lexington, dam Miriam Gen. A. Buford, $810. Bay, by Lexington, dam Kate Anderson .-Gilmore, Ky., $150. Bay, by Lexington, dam imp Brittannia th. Col. Bruce. $620 Gray, by Lexington, dam Hagless, S Bry-ant, $215. by Lexington, dam Vandalia S. Bry-Ray, by hestnut, by imp. Australian, dam sister to Idlewild, S. Bryant, $240. Bay, hy Lexington, dam Emma. Gen. Harding, Tenn., $310. Chestnut, by imp. Australiau, dam Luileme aj. Hart Gibson' Ky., $230. Bay, by imp. Australian, dam Ultima F. Bissicks, $300. Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Lizzie Mar

gan. S. Bryant, $300.

Bay, by Lexington, dam imp. Zone, Maj. Bay, by Lexington, dam Banner, Maj. All an, $255.
Bay, by Bounie Scotland, dam' Geneva J. M. J. CHASE. Brown, by Lexington, dam Katonah. L. of the late firm of Manker, Chara & Co., of Riples, enighn. Mich., $305. vimn Australian dam Linds Gen the canines in a tract. There is still about a thousand worthless curs in the town that ought to be killed.—Lex. Gazette.

There Droven the fee is Carette.

Chestnut, by Lexington, dam imp. Weather Witch. Joe. Allen. (col'd). Ky. $500.

Bay. by Lexington, dam Lightsome. Sam'l

Salvers, Ky., $450. Brown, by imp. Au alian, dain Luna.-Bay, by Lexington, dam Young Ellsler, R. White, N. Y., $265. Chestnut, by imp. Australian, dam bindors Maj. Allman, $175 Brown, by Asteroid, dam Veronae S. Bry. ant, $325. Ray, by Asteroid, dam Edins. J. J. Mc-

Chestnut, by Lexington, dam Sallie Lewis. A. Grinstead, Ky., $410. Bay, by Lexington, dam imp. Eltham Luss. Mr. Colter, Ohio, $260 Bay, by Asteroid, dam Lulu Horton John Loud, Ky., $310.

Fanny, Henry, foaled 1849, by Sir Henry, with filly foal by Woodford Mambrino, and stinged to him again. Mr. Ross, Tennessee, Kate, saddle mare, with foal by St. Elmo. Bay filly, foaled 1866, by S. I. Farrest, dam Little Meg. Mr. Gilmore, $105.

Black filly, foaled 1865, by St. Elmo. J. W. Hant, Ky., $330.

Gray saddle mare, with foal by St. Elmo.

Gray gelding, foaled 1865, by Pilot, jr-Gray stallion, foaled 1265, by Pilot, jr.-Col. Nelligan, $17.5. Gray stallion, fosled 1867, by Ed Forrest J. A. Grinstead, $225. A. Grindeau, #220.

Bay gelding, foaled 1897; by Norman. W. NEW FIRM. Dowden, Ky. $180.

Bay gelding, fooled 1867, by Ed Forcest, pelano, Ohio. $195. Bay filly, foaled 1867, by Ed Forcest Mr. Ray felly, foaled 1867, by Ed. Forrest. Gen Robinson, $2205. Bay filly, fooled 1867, by Ed Forrest, Col.

Kavanaugh, Ohio, $190.

Gray filly, foaled 1867, by Ed Forrest -Gen. Robinson, $232 50. Chestnut filly, foafed 1868, by Ed. Forcest, Mr. Kavanaugh, $150. Bay filly, fonled 1868, by Ed. Forrest Mr. Allman $335. Gray colt, foaled 1868, by St. Elmo. F. Acitement prevails in the community and breats of summary justice have been made. Hissicks, $105.0 Virgil, black stallion, foaled 150th by Vandanker To Denmark.—George H. Yeaddal, dam Ansel's dam by imp. Forbabire, John ram Rogers, Ky., $200. Black horse, 4 years old, J. M. Graves, Ky. Scott Court .- Offerings of cattle at George town, Monday, amounted to about 200, alt of inferior grades. In the first part of the day some sales were effected at fair rates, but to wards the close the market became very heavy, and several lots were withdrawn. Four lat weden, which place ex-Senator Carlile want.

d. but didn't get. When the Senate next oxen, smooth weight 1800, brought $6.75. A lot of medium two years old steers were bid to $55, but withdrawn. Yearlings, same quality, but he is now on his way.

The Wheat Chor.—We have seen a good found purchasely. A lot of list-class 2 yr olds many farmers the past few days, who tell us were knocked down to Liste & Hall, of this limited demand.

day, than has been in our town for some months past. Husiness seemed to be brisk and trade tolerably lively considering the lightness of the money market.

Stock sold readily and for fair prices — Par-

DATENT

FRUIT JAR.

Juit Jass

BELF BEALING.

ALL GLASS-ELINE'S PATENT, 1965

The Most Effectual in the Market.

G. W. Blatterman & Co.

FRUIT AND PRESERVE JARSE

FLASKS OF VARIOUS EINDS.

Corner of Second and Court Streets.

MAYSVILLE, KY

Whiberal Discount to the Trade

Planna Mill

PLANING AND FLOORING MILL; DOORS, SASH and BLIND

FACTORY

CHASE, DIMMITT & COMPANY, MANUFACTURERS OF ALL EINDS

BUILDING MATERIAL SHINGLES, POSTS,

PALINOS, LATH MOULDINGS, Fine and Poplar Lumber,

PLANED AND ROUGH

MAYSVILLE. KY.

Jemelers

WATCHES & JEWELRYS No. 35, East Second at., OHINA PALACE.

ALBERT & KLARENAAR. (Successor) to Albert & Lillerton,

THE LARGEST and FINEST STOCK

WATCHE IN PLAIN AND PANCE

There is hele

GENEVA, AMERICAN, and ELGIN

Roll, Silver and Diamond Back l'asea. Plain Gold and Diamond Mings.

Solid Silver Ware, Speciacles &c. ALL OF WRICE WILL BE SUED OF STREET BELOW CINCINNATI PRICESUS STORE

work guaranted to give satisfaction, or no charge.

OOK AND JOH PRINTINGO NEATLY EXECUTED AT THE MATSVILLE BAGLE OFFICE

BY E. O. STEDMAN.

Th ir counterparts, and each shall find its own But now with wast blind chance the lots are thrown!

Yet bon's o gold, linked hands, and chance Even ponsel beds, do not a marriage make,

When such things chain the soul teat n ve Love's maring tittle vantage shall it take. Wands ing w th alien f et throughout the wide,

Hushed tompl , over those who pine outside!

AGRICULTURAL.

[From the Coun'ry Gentleman.] SHIPPING BEES.

Editors Co. Gent :- An inquiry is made Can a hive of Italian bees be sent to Florida at this season of the year? I reply, yes. for it is not unusual to put bees a week in the hottest summer weather in confinement, though not desirable often to do so.

I would recommend that in sending them the hive be enclosed in a stout outer box, and that at least fifteen one inch holes be bored in each side and top and hottom of the outer box, and covered with wire cloth; and that a space of two inches be between the hive and outer box, to which the bees be freely admit-ted from the hive; that it go by the shortest route, so as not to be over four or five days

A better plan would be to send to my friend H. Allen, of Wenham, Massachusetts, about five dollars in greenbacks, and he will mail an Italian queen with about fifty workers, in his neat style of package, and they will go to Florida by mail safely for two or four cents

Then get at least four quarts of bees that are hanging out on one, two, or more hives, two, three or more miles from the place they are desired to be in, in Florids, and put them, say at 4 P. M. into a hive—either with or without combs; shut them up with wire cloth ventilation in a dark room. At nine o'clock in the evening let a few out of the entrance, and let them run over the cage in which the queen comes by mail a few minutes; then with a knife or screw-driver open the cage and let the queen out among the bees coming out of the hive; then lift the edge of the hive and let all come out that wish. A few will fly to the lamp that you have set off five feet to see by, and n few get on the floor and perhaps up your pantaloon legs or on your face, but they won't sting unless you pinch them or make them sting. If you saw the queen go into the hive, they will all be quiet at four o'clock the next morning in the hive, when they should be taken carefully out of doors and put on their permanent stand.

A valuable Italian queen got away acciera of its past. dentally in this manner one evening, and taught me this, since which I have pracof Africa spread about seven million square miles of comparatively unknown land. Upon ticed this plan, and have never had a queen the character of this region numberless speculations have been spent, and the exploration

THE BEE EXODUS -- DEAD LARV .F.

Eds. Co. Gent .: -- A correspondent (March 25, p. 241) thinks that the disppearance of the honey bees last year in Kentucky was owing to the effavium from dead larve, killed by audden cold after a few warm days. Now I have kept bees ten years and if that were the case in Kentucky, I am sure it would be the subject to as sudden changes as anywhere. I have seen that same thing happen here, when bees would leave the young larve in part, but queens never lay eggs in the epring much farther than the bees can cover them, where the brood comes down to the bottom of the comb, the hive is generally well filled with bees, and when the bees are driven away from the brood by a sudden change in the weather, my experience is that they remove all such dead brood from the combs, towards the bottom of the hive, it becomes more visible and it is very easy to detect it— the scent that rises from such a corrupting mass is easily caught. Now if we expect to escape the penalty, we must remove such hives at once; therefore we must watch, and on the discovery of the first symptoms there must be a thorough examination. This can be done by inserting a little smoke under the bive; turn the hive bottom upwards, examine every piece of comb that contains brood, and if you find by uncapping some of the sealed cells that the young bees have turned black, the bive should be condemned at once, for it was so long deemed to be. The Western shores north of Walwisch Bay give ample evidence that a wealthy country lies beyond —a country rich in minerals and vegetation, remember that all young bees are white when in a healthy state.

THE INCREASE OF INSECTS.

and poor only in the means and agencies of industry. Liberia shows us of what the west-It is a common remark that insects destructive to fruit and injurious to fruit trees, have been generally on the rapid increase in most parts of the country. The cultivation and improvement of the land, the more abundant vegetable growth, and other facilities for the multiplication of these depredators, have fa-vored thus increase. Remedies are talked of and discussed, but no general effort of an energetic character is made to crush them. At the present time, and for years past, sentimental writers have proposed to throw all the work on the birds. But although some of the birds have incressed almost as rapidly as the insects, the latter still multiply. They have proved entirely inadequate for the purpose, although they may have done some good. Instead of looking idly on, and hoping that birds may save the fruit, cultivators must take hold vigorously with both hands. One active so moderate that Captain Grant walked through the whole of it in woolen clothing and slept every night between blankets. Seven hundred and fifty specimens of plants, brought away by that traveler and his lamented comhold vigorously with both hands. One active man is worth a thousand birds. As an example, we may mention a single experiment on the orchard caterpillar. This insect appears in large numbers only occasionally. A few years since, it was found to be rapidly increasing, and threatened on the approach of the growing season, to strip a fine young orchard of several hundred pear trees. The birds had proved entirely insufficient to check them. As in most other parts of Africa, so in this equatorial region, the natives lead an easy and somewhat gluttonous life, in the rude enjoyment of Nature's ready gifts. Accord-ing to the last accounts from Dr. Livingstone proved entirely insufficient to check them. An active man was set to work-first, to cutoff and destroy the rings of eggs in winter, and afterwards to swab or crush the young larve in their nests. Three days were thus occupied altogether, and the number of inacts destroyed was estimated at half a million. Clean work was made of them. All the birds in the country would not have done it, judging from the slight impression they made on the caterpillars. In another instance a nursery of several thousand pear trees became hadly infeated with aphides, but the birds did nothing. A many with a few nails birds did nothing. A man with a few pails of soap-sads cleared them in two days. Naturalists and fruit men have been search-that the "finance agent," Padwick, had "dried up." The truth is that his Grace's mother-in-law, Mrs. Hope, has once consented to clear him from his liabilities, but only on condition that he gives up racing entirely and goes abroad. It is few men, indeed, if popular feeling be correct, who have so much reachers and their well of their w ng for years to find some hirds who will take hold of the curculios. Their search has not been very successful—unless we except turkeys, and these have to be fed with the young larve in the tallen fruit, and not with the puncturing beetles. So long as we look on with our hands in our pockets, hoping that some animals will do the work we should perform ourselves, we may expect failure. a few years past during our own experience in employing men, we have had trees bending with heavy crops of plums. Before we em-ployed them, we had scarcely a dozen good ones in a season, from six dozen trees. it was supposed the former follies of the prodigal had utterly disgusted her. Her daughter, the Duchess, has, it is well-known, a great taste for music, and it is hinted a

CROP AND MARKET REFORTS.

There is little change in the prospects for winter wheat. Where wheat was sown in good season and well put in, it is generally good; but a considerable share that was put in late is poor, injured, and some ruined.
The report of the Department of Agriculture for March and April has quite a number of extracts from correspondents, which are said to present a fair index of the character of all in which eight reports from News York make the wheat crop good, four poor and three an average; from Pennsylvania mine are good, three poor; Ohio, ten good, three poor; Michigan, five good, four poor, four an average; Wisconsis, three poor, one good; Missonsi, eleven good, eight poor, three an average; while from Kanas there are

AP THE VATOVILLE PAREN OFFICE

Of the five great continents which in the main form the inhabitable world, Africa is the least known. It is true that books of or both standing in a knot talking, laughing travel have, from the days of Herodotus, been and awearing. Just as he had passed one of written concerning the progress of discovery them should some feering piece of impertisimply been books of travel—records of individual adventure or exploration or little else.

Of the political state, domestic accounts presence of the French there, and the opera-tion of their vigorous colonizing system. In Egypt, too, the torpor of Orientalism is rapidly yielding to the quickening influences of Western enterprise and example. The extension of railways, the construction of the ca-nal, and the development of cotton culture there, are alone sufficient to give a new chap-ter to the history of the most venerable of

of that river. The fine natural capabilities of Abyssinia, brought to light by the recent expedition, will soon attract enterprise in that direction; and if the rulers of Egypt are true to their interest, a future lies in store for the land of Misraim far greater than the stateliest of it has been the work of ages. Little by little the veil has been lifted, until we now interior of Africa was considered to be a "howling wilderness." as one described it, or many charms of scenery, and are by no means insalubrious. The stigma of unhealthiness ern shores are capable when occupied and employed by men suited to the climate and the work. Even so near the equator as the Camereon Mountains we find within reach of Eastern section of that vast depression which is believed, and, indeed, may now be said to be known, to intersect Africa longitudinally from the Equator to the Cape—that wonderful lake-land, whose inland seas, fringed by rade, attested sufficiently the luxuriance of vegetation there, and the fertility of the soil.

rom, seeing that it was generally believed count for this last mark of her affection when stil greater for musicians, or at least one, Mr. Tom. Hohler, the eminent tenor, who has, it were gladdened by the appearance of his account at Tattersali's. - London Letter.

A MR. MALKETH, says a French paper, who recently died in England, followed for thirty-five years the profession of "fourteenth at ta-

Between the Northern and Southern shores

Of the political state, domestic economy, and social conditions of the several African communities, it may safely be said that English people, as a rule, have the faintest knowledge and most confused ideas. It is not many years ago since a useful little publication called the reterman's Year-Book, while supplying full and accurate statistics required.

in the plainest and shortest manner, he told them of God's pity and love for sinners. Afplying full and accurate statistics regarding different countries and peoples, wholly ignored Africa. The geography books of schools are comparatively reticent in conveying information about this part of the earths tried to tell them all about Jesus, using the surface. It matters not that Africa can claim words of the Bible as much as possible. As nearly a fourth of that area, nor that the history of a part at least of its territory dates hungry the Saviour often was, all were si unt. Then, as the end came nearer, trying to make back to the earliest known periods. Neither Then, as the end came nearer, trying to make magnitude nor antiquity will alone suffice to attract the interest of modern ages to a land an occasional shuffle, as one and another from whose shores the sceptre of empire long pushed nearer to hear how the good Lord had since passed away. For centuries all trace suffered for them. They listened with faces of African greatness has been but a memory, the name of Africa has called forth no sentiment but that of pity; mystery and ignorance have enveloped the continent in their gloom, and the great current of civilization as it sweeps around the world, would never have left a trace more these shares had not stray. left a trace upon these shores had not stray from his lips as he told them that now, eddies been sometimes caught and diverted while he spoke to them. Jesus was standing by the scattered settlements along the Northand Southern coasts.

It is chiefly from these two points that the restless forces of European colonization are gradually working on toward the regeneration of the continent. Along the northern coast we find in Algeria and in Egypt the evidences of rapid progress and industrial advancement. In the first-named country the French are fast displacing the vestiges of Moorish away and an alittle grant for their protection, here is the case of all others that calls for that protection. To accept these men in society, to receive them in our clubs, to make them associates and companions, is a shame and a disgrace on us. To shun the every one that wishes to love him hold up his hand as I do;" and he held his up. They looked at one and another. Then one held his up. A little mass of rags, with only one shoe and a little grant for their protection, here is the case of all others that calls for that protection. To accept these men in society, to receive them in our clubs, to make them associates and companions, is a shame and a disgrace on us. To shun the every one that wishes to love him hold up his hand as I do;" and he held his up. They looked at one and another. Then one held his up. A little mass of rags, with only one shoe and a little grant for their protection, here is the case of all others that as when he died on the cross for their sakes.

The story ended, no one spoke. Suddenly the gentleman said, "Now, lada, he loved us a shame and a disgrace on us. To shun the every one that wishes to love him hold up his hand as I do;" and he held his up. They looked at one and another. Then one held his up. A little mass of rags, with only one should be a sharper and the blackleg, and to know one of these in the case of all others that as when he died on the cross for their sakes. moorish sway, and are transforming a health-ful and fertile country into a lesser France. Where the christian was for five centuries ex-cluded: where man has broaded as lower man has broaded as the French are fast displacing the vestiges of Moorish sway, and are transforming a healthhand. It was a touching sight. One and another followed, till all the hands, just twelve where the christian was for nee centuries excluded: where man has brooded so long in der the cold shade of the crescent—not far from where heathenism at Carthage, and on the very apot where a power that menaced Europe and conquered Spain held rule thereafter—a prosperous community, great in the elements of strength, is now established. Aland said, "Good night." So they parted.

About three weeks after this the same gen tleman was going under St. Clement Danes archway. A little ragged shoe-black was kneeling at one side. After the customary, Nile, and in all probability ere many years are over a line of railway will follow the course of that river. The fine payment and an all probability or many years dive forward, and stood grinning with delight right in front of the gentlement and him of right in front of the gentleman and his friend.
The former had not the least notion who he was, so at last he said, "Well, my boy, you sive." seem to know me; and who are you? "Please, sir, I'm Jack."

"Jack! Jack who? "Only Jack, sir, please sir." All at once it came across him who the lad was.

"I remember you now," he said, "Have you tried to keep your promise to love the Lord Jesus, and show how much you love him by obeying him?" Yes, sir, I have; indeed I have," he anwered with great earnestness.

have caught glimpses which, though fitful and partial, are yet plain enough to give us a general idea of the country and its peoples. Inexpressibly delighted, the gentleman stopped and talked to him a little, making an excuse by letting him clean his That idea involves an entire subversion of the traditions held by our fathers. By them the "Can you read, Jack"? he asked. "Yes, sir, not over well; but I can make shift to spell out a page."

"howling wilderness." Now we know a "death-stricken morass." Now we know that these secluded regions are more or less where you could read for yourself the story you heard the other night?"

which attaches to Africa, strictly speaking, is deserved only by the coast, and that only at points. Near the shores the deltas and lelow had set his face heavenward. I see you would like it, Jack," added his gions of rivers, long stretches of marsh, man-grove swamps, and decaying forests, exhale and you shall have one, Good-bye." the deadly malaria, which under a tropical sun, has struck down so many of our countrymen. Exacily at the appointed hour on the mo move all such dead brood from the combs, without any bad result, leaving the comb clean and nice.

By these dread forces has a large portion of the continent been barricaded against the approaches of civilized man. It would seem also were that die in a hive, but as the season advances, the weather gets warm, the bees advances, the weather gets warm, the bees deep through so many ages a sealed.

There was nothing "taking" about him. He livered, they seldom leave a mark. And all interests the door. In walked Jack. He had been to some neight or remember that when people mean to be in boring pump, poor fellow, and washed him approaches of civilized man. It would seem as if by a mere natural barrier Africa has been kept through so many ages a sealed.

There was nothing "taking" about him. He expansion of man's finer faculties, trained by humble, repentant look, would have been relong experience, and guided by the fuller pulsive. That, however, he was not. The wounds, but are always ready to say, "I'm light of advancing knowledge, to a better fit-gentleman shook hands with him, said he sure I never meant it; I fancied it was only light of advancing knowledge, to a better fit-ness for the work of dealing with the huge was glad to see him, and made him come and play. As for my part, I never intended to be sit by him. difficulties of Nature. What art and science have done elsewhere they can do in Africa. "Jack, why do you want a Testament?" Drainage and cultivation may convert those "To read about him you told us of," said miasmatic swamps into productive and habitable fields. Railways may bring the higher "Why do you want to read about him? be and healthier regions of the interior into close connection with the coast. For the world cause you love him, is it? Jack nodded once, shortly and decisively. There was no doubt about the matter, not a knows that Africa is not the desert country whit. "Why do you love him?"

Jack was silent. His little ordinary features moved in a singular way; his eyes twinkled, his breast beaved. All at once he dropped his head on the table, bing as if his heart would break. "Cause they killed him," gasped poor Jack: It was with some difficulty that the gentle-man restrained his own tears. The fervent the coast a district enjoying a climate so ge belief in the Lord's death, the clear view nial that Captain Burton recommended it as which he had of it, that it was for him, and nial that Captain Burton recommended to a second place for a penal settlement. On the other side of the continent we have the never had melted before. He was allowed to never had melted before. He was allowed to never had melted before less frequent, and cry until his sobs became less frequent, and then the gentleman read to him from St. John's Gospel, and talked to him of the great ful lake-land, whose inland seas, fringed by the palm growth of the tropics, are overshad-owed by the peaks of the mystic Mountains of owed by the peaks of the mystic Mountains of home where we should fall at those pressed feet that were pierced for us, and try to tell him a little of the love we bear him. He was then shown how he could serve Christ here by being a little missionary, and striving to ring others to him. His name was written. or rather printed at his request, "very large" in his Testament. The gentleman then pray-ed with him that the Good Shepherd might help and guide this poor lamb in his dark and difficult path; and with a little more talk about his prospects, they parted.

We need scarcely point out the secret of this happy, happy history. This has been clearly shown already. Poor Jack believed that what the Lord did in dying on the cross, he did for him was few him es inful control. country southward bears very much the he did for him, even for him, so sinful so un-

Married on Chemise. In England, from early times until the present, a notion has prevailed that if a man married a woman in her shift only he was not liable to any debts which she might have contracted. This was a vulgar error, founded probably on the legal maxim that a husband is liable to his wife's debts, because he, upon son for speaking well of their mothers-in-law; for she must have paid his creditors since his marriage hundreds of thousands of pounds. Scandal, of course, has a reason ready to acmarriage, acquired an absolute interest in her personal estate—the unlearned deduction her personal estate—the unlearned deduction being that if the wife had no estate the husband would not incur any liabilities. The register-books of a village in Wilts, under date of 1715, coatain an entry of a marriage of a woman "in her smock, without any clothes or head-gear on." At Ulcomb, in Kent, in 1725, a woman was married in her chemise. At Whitehaven, in 1766, a woman stripped herself to her shift in church, and in that condition she stood at the alter and was is reported, been on terms of intimacy with her, which has made Mrs. Hope regard the Duke as an ill-used man. Hence the fact that she has forgiven him once more, and the further fact that the hearts of book-makers stripped herself to her shift in church, and in that condition she stood at the altar and was married. In Lincolnshire, between 1838 and 1844, a woman was married only enveloped in a sheet. And not many years back a similar marriage took place. The clergyman finding nothing in the rubric about the woman's dress, thought he could not refuse to marry her in her chemise only. At Kirton-in-Lindsay there was a popular belief that the woman must be actually nude when she left her residence for that of her intended has band, in order to relieve him from her debts: five years the profession of "fourteenth at tathree an average; from Pennsylvania care good, three poor; Ohio, ten good,
care good, three poor; Ohio, ten good,
care poor; Michigan, five good, four poor, or an average; Wisconsie, three poor, one of Missonri, eleven good, eight poor, three average; while from Kansas there are everage; while from Kansas there are fit her residency for the test that the blet her residency for the had a case of this kind occurred. A woman left her residence for this kind deep time at the house

Breach of Pramise," What Charles Lever Thinks About It.

[Cornelius O'Dowd, in May Blackwood.] Now I am fully persuaded that the horse whip and that the heir-rigger were far more effectual in suppressing these offenses than trial at har. The redress which can only be approached by a humiliation and a terror is no redress at all; and if we sounded the depth of public feeling, we should find there is a of public feeling, we should find there is a more contemptuous sentiment for her who has gained the damages than for him who has paid them. As I have said before, the real hero is the defendant; he has had his "lark," and he has paid for it. Two thousand or three perhaps, seem a good deal to give for a flirtation and a confidential correspondence, but he has shown the. peblic what a danger ous dog he is, what a terror he might be in a neighborhood—not to say that he has cast a shadow over a whole life, and left an undying memory of treachery where he had promises fidelity and loyalty.

Why will not public opinion, so unforgiving to the duelist, extend some of its severity to the cases that dueling knew how to deal with or, if it will not permit the pistol, why not measure out to the betrayer some of that in? dignation it now bestows on him who fights?
Declare these men infamous. It is no case for a money reparation. We have in part diedarded that base amende in some other cases; let us have done with it here. Degrade the man who breaks his pledge when solemnly given to make a girl his wife, from whatever station of honor or profit he possesses, and pronounced him disqualified to serve the cheat at play, and you will suppress it more affectually then if you quardupled the dama-ges; or, if you will not do this—if you will maintain the pleasant theory that courtship mis a game where the players stand on equal terms, and that it is a Europe and conquered Spain held rule there after—a prosperous community, great in the elements of strength, is now established. Algeria has a large European population, and a trade worth many inillions sterling. The to try to keep his commandments." At once the french there, and the operation of the french there are the fittle black hand was put in his, and the prepared to regard every man as a possible of the french there. you!" He then gave them three shillings, to blackguard—if, I say, you desire to maintain be shared amongst them for bed and bread, and said, "Good night." So they parted.

blackguard—if, I say, you desire to maintain all this, the result will be a very acute class of young ladies, which will lead to fewer cases of breach of promise, but in return give you a larger crip of suits for divorce and separation. It is not merely beause I am an Irishman that I like a little Lynch law, but I really believe 'lynching' enlists a larger share of public sympathy in its exercise than all other forms of justice; and it has two other merits, it is both speedy and inexpen-

A friend of mine, for whose opinion and judgment I have great deference, tells me that in my zeal to punish these traitors of false faith, I am likely to put down that pleasant pastime called flirtation. But I demur to this ctum; I am sure I have never heard it alleged that the "Universal Peace Association decried firewords and actually abjured rock-

As for flirtation, I maintain it to be not not only an innocent but an improving pastime. Just as certain games with wooden segments of countries instill notions of geography, flirtation is "reading made easy" love-making; and as there are vast numbers of people who require that all this instruction should be given in some easy and agreeable mode, this practice is by no means to be condemned.

If it were not that I intend to preach on this text some day at more length, I would go more freely into the matter wow, and say There was no answer, but a half chuckle of happiness at the bare idea. There was no pretence about the lad. The poor little fel-have said here, disceuraged the practice any more than any man who denounces cheating at cards should be supposed to be averse to whist-playing. Whot I uphoid is, that the game should be played loyally. There is a great deal of sparring with the gleves on, and was very ugly; and had it not been for a I have said here is directed to those who, after LATE dispatches from the Plains indicate that the Indians are again upon the war-path in considerable numbers. A surveying party were attacked between Sheridan and Denver by a band of Cheyennes, whom they succeededin driving off, with considerable loss. Spotted Tail has left his reservation, with two hundred lodges, probably with hostile inten-tions. A fight is also reported between a party of Sioux and a band of Reese Indians, near Fort Buford, in which the former were defeated, but sent for reenforcements, with the intention of renewing the fight.

Stoves and Timmare.

NEW STOVE AND TIN STORE HUGH POWER,

[Successor to Power & Spalding.]

SECOND ST., SOUTH SIDE, MAYSVILLE. Would respectfully call the attention of the public to the variety and styles of stoves which he now offers for sale, in this market, of the most modern improvement, for wood or coal, combining all the qualities, making them first class stoves, in beauty of design, economy of fuel, and quickness of opera-tion. These stoves, which comprise a great variety in design, size and price, have been selected from the best stove markets in the country, and will warrant the highest recommendations to meet the wents of

HIS FINE PARLOR AND JAMB GRATES Have been selected with great care, and for variety, neatness of design and fineness of finish, cannot be surpassed.

I also have a fine assortment of fancy Japanned ware, toilet setts, brass kettles, cream freezers, ec-

I will manufacture and keep constantly on hand . TIN WARE.

And am prepared to offer to the trade such inducements as cannot fail to be satisfactory. Particular attention paid to Roofing, Guttering, and General job work.

AT All work done by me warranted to give satisfaction. The highest price paid for old copper, brase and iron.

AND ALL WORK TO BE TO

N. COOPER, No. 21 & 23, SECOND ST., Opposite Court

I have determined to sell out my lerge stock of COOKING STOVES,

TIN, WOODEN & STONEWARES, PRUIT JARS, ICE CHRISTS, Water Coolers, Oream Preezrs, &c.

At Prices barely to COVER COST. Now is the time to buy CHEAPER than eve was sold in this market. justwaw Drn Goods.

GEORGE COX.1 DEALERS IN FANCY AND STAPLE

GEORGE COX & SON.

DRY GOODS. Carpeting, Oilcloths, Mattings

Housekeeping Goods Generally.

AND I DULE DESIGN DOWNERS

Grocery and Commission Merchants

HAMILTON GRAY & Co.,

[SUCCESSORS TO E. GRAT,]

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN ALL KINDS OF

Liquors, Wines, Brandies, &c., Old Bourbon and Bye Whiskles, Corner Second and Sutton Streets.

MATSVILLE, KT.

to morals in whereter name of ad to We are now receiving from New York and other eastern ports the following supply of fresh family groceries, purchased at the lowest net cash

prices, and now offer them to merchants
and consumers at Cincinati quetations:
nod island sugars,
crushed, pulverized, Rio,
Java and Leguarra coffees, mackerel in barrals, half he mackerel in barrels, half bar-rels and kits, fine green and black rels and hits, five green and black teas, fine cut one wing to baccos, summer, opal and star candles, German and alm soap, cinnamore, envelopes, letter and note papers, imported segars, oyaters and lobsters, sardines, washboards, native and foreign whees, apple, French and pale brandles, gins, Scotch ale, nutmegs, cloves, smoking tobacco, do., which we will sell low for east, or in exchange for all kinds of country produce.

Mall orders sent us shall be filled in the same manner, with reference to quality and quantity, as manner, with reference to quality and quantity, as if the parties purchasing were personally present. We respectfully collect the orders of the trade generally, promising satisfaction in all cases.

sept12 july? ly HAMILTON GRAY & Co. GROCERIES AND LIQUORS.

W. L. PEARCE,

outs with hearty relief. Other to Wholesale Grocer shell and first of day us themen.

COMMISSION MERCHANT, Sutton street, opposite the Hill House.

I am now receiving from New York and other eastern ports, the following suppir of fresh MATSVILLE, KY.

FAMILY GROCERIES, purchased at the lowest net cash price, and now purchased at the lowest net cash price, and now offer to merchants and customers at CLNOIN MATI QUOTATIONS, Rio, Java and Laguayra coffee.

Crushed, ranulate land coffee A sugar, Levering's, Choice N. O. and Island sugar, Baltimore siruys, in bbls, helf bbls and kers, New fish, in bbls, half bbls and kits,
Choice green and black teas,
Weakboards, brooms, buckets, tubs,
Fancy toilet and barsoaps,
Star and tallow cundles, saot,
Wrapping paper, writing paper, envelopes.

LIQUORS. including choice old Bourbon, in bbls and bottles, fine French brandy, champagne wine, ginger wine, native wine and

RECTIFIED WHISKY.

I am prepared to receive all kinds of storage on the most reasonable terms. My personal attention will be given to the sale and shipment of all goods consigned to my care.

All orders sent me shall be filled in the same manner with reference to quantity, quality and price as if the parties purchasing were personally present.

BY I respectfully solicit the orders of the trade generally, promising satisfaction in all cases.

W. L. PEARCE.

M R. & A. R. BURGESS, NEWstand man bodgmit . wone a sit not

THOS. A. ROSS,

Wholesale Liquor Store.

fret was so glassing. But not o

OFFICE, No. 11, Second Street, lify of these vocal interpretati (With J. E. Nicholson & Co., Cigar Store.)

dannebal MAYSVILLE. KY, and torns, which encired for the gifted repiller

ON HAND the bearing seconded - Phase was navi-

WHISE IES BRANDIES WINES. GINS. &c., &c.

COVE OYSTERS.
SABDINES.
PECONS.
ALMONDS.
FILBERTS.
PEA NUTS.
CANDIES. &c. temporary reverse to I am anxious to do an active business and will at

"SMALLER PROFITS"

TEAN ANY EQUEE IN THE CITY.

GIVE ME A CALL, BEFORE PURCHASING!

Terms Cash! feb4wly NEW ORLEANS SUGAR.

MANAGEA CHOICE LOT one siler sar glogus on an abia se JUST RECEIVED AND FOR SALE,

NEW ORLEANS SUGAR OF THE BEST BROEIVED WEEKLY:

o man av FOR SALE BY many le wolld) salt midtie. B. VANDEN & CO. Cor, Second & Murket Street.

Boost and Shoes BALL & TAYLOR. in thild, the successful hidden was the

Having bought out Mr. D. A. Wallingford, we will continue the BOOT & SHOP BUSINESS at his old stand. We will keep our stock supplied at Baur Hal adi LEW AND mood haven

DESIRABLE GOODSI

LADIES' AND MENS' BOOTS & SHOES

TO ORDER, BY rights to manufacture of to use the above in catter also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to each to the such as the above in catter also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to each to the such as TO ORDER, BY

Drn Goods &c. NEW GOODS. NEW DRESS GOODS, NEW DRESS GOODS, NEW DRESS GOODS NEW SHAWLS,

NEW SHAWLS

ALPACAS, ALPACAS.

ALPACAS. LENOS, LENOS. LENOS.

POPLINS, POPLINS. POPLINS. PARCELS. PARCELS.

LINENS LINENS LINENS. CARPETS, CARPETS

CASSIMERES CASSIMERES,

CASSIMERES CLOTHS, CLOTHS, CLOTHS. NEW GOODS CONTINUALLY, CONTINUALLY. STILL THEY COME.

STILL THEY COME, To MULLINS & HUNT'S To MULLINS & HUNT'S

CHEAP DRY GOODS STORE CHEAP DRY GOODS STORE

CHEAP GOODS ALL THE TIME BARGAINS

OLD FRIENDS. NEW FRIENDS, NEW FRIENDS, STRANGERS, STRANGERS, EVERYBODY, EVERYBODY, EVERYBODY, BUY YOUR DRY GOODS AT

THE CHEAP DRY GOODS STORE

M. R. & A. R. BURGESS.

Importers and Jobbers

DRY GOODS

MAYSVILLE, EY.

Keep constantly on hand a large assortment of Foreign and American Dry Goods and Yankee Notions, which they offer for Cash at Eastern prices.

M. R. & A. R. BURGESS.

D. D. DUTY & CO.,

DEALERS IN Foreign and Domestic DRY GOODS,

HOSIERY GLOVES, LACES, EMBROIDERY, 40. SECOND STREET, (below Sutton.)

Public favors solicited. MAYSVILLE, KY. Safety fire Jacket.

IN SECURING MYSELF, A THERES I SECURE MY NEIGHBOR AUTOMACI TE FROM

ACCIDENTAL LOSSES, AND RELIEVE MY MIND AT ONCE From the Fearful Dread of Fire!

Which is the certain, and positive result, sconer or later from a defective due. All smoke and fire fluor are in a messarci defective, and especially so when piping for stores come in close proximity to wood. They are dangerous and unreliable, either with or without Croeks, as the numerous fires occurring where they are used as a mean; of safety amply prove. These crocks necessarily contract and expand, being the effect of the change of temperature from heat to cold, causing them to crack, thereby roudering them most insecure when you suppose you have the greatest safety. The great majority of the conflagrations in this country originate from some defection in the fine when pipes are used as conductors of heat and smoke, and it will continue to be so, until the crocks are dispensed with and something more reliable and durable is substituted. This defect and uncertainty is at once removed and lecurity made available when it is desired, by

FIRE PROOF JACKET! Which has been examined, proved, and highly and argently recommended. and urgently recommended.

Germantown, Bracken co.. Ky...

September 10th, 1808.

We, the Committee, appointed to examine and report upon the great security given to property and life, by the introduction of J. B. HARRIS' FIRE PROOF JACKET, would respectfully and urgently recommend it to the consideration of the Directory of the Mason and Bracken Agricultural Association, as summently deserving their approval, by an appropriate premium.

J. W. Crow, T. Nofana.

J. B. HARRIS'

Having obtained of the United States letters patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire originating from defective fives, or where iron pipes are ased as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and it warranted to give satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am nowready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad care; de, wherever pipes, as conductors, are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired, I will sell, en application, rights to manufacture of to use the above invention; Premium Awarded.

Housekeeping Goods Generally, State and County Rights for Pale, minister. State and County Rights for Pale,

5.00 LTG1 (1992 2.4: #2 the man would be at all a MOWER AND REAPER

or mante lancinhou da avez

I MARROW & DWINE

CHAMPION

Agrenttural Implements

THE

IS THE BEST IN USE

and a second of to coal am loan

CALL AND SEE IT.

a positive assessment will a SEND FOR CIRCULAR TO

> they of the past start C. A LOVE & CO.

2nd. Street, Maysville, Ey ... GOLD MEDAL

THRESHER FOR SALE!

Call and see sample BRODBICK & OTT.
Maysville, Kr. GRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS IN GREAT

A GRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

The undersigned has on hand and for sale, a general variety of Agricultural Implements; such as Threshers, both steam and horse power; Mowers, Reapers, Corn Planters, Hay Rakes, Wagons, Carta, Plows, Drills, Cultivators, &c., &c.

Office and Warehouse, 2nd street, Mayaville, &g.
Call and see me, or send for descriptive Circular and price hist.

Mayalwam

Miscellaneous GREAT LAND SALE

-ispice all photes all in HENDERSON COUNTY, KY.,

the state of the s

Authorized by Act of the Kentneky Lec-isiature, 1887-8.

THE ROLL OF THE PERSON NAMED AND ADDRESS OF THE OWNER, MANAGER, Seven Rich and Highly Improved Ohio River Bottom Farms, and 504 Town Lots, to be disposed of

IN SHARES.

(all 000 13 CAPITAL PRIZE: - - $150,000

MAKING 511 PRIZES IN ALL.

Tickets, Five Dollars. The drawing will take place at Masonic Temple, Louisville, Ky., on the lat day of September. In Louisville, A.y., on the last of the 1869.

Agents will furnish pamphlets, siving description of the property, and containing the act of the Legislature AUTHORIZING THE SALE.

Commissioners, who will manage the enterprise, are named in the act of the Legislature, and their are named in the act of the Legislature, and their contagnity and responsibility are indorsed in the certification.

commissioners, who will manage the enterprise are named in the act of the Legislature, and their integrity and responsibility are indored in the certificates (which may be found in the pamphietes of Gov. John W. Stevenson, Biona Garrett Davia and Thea. C. McCreery, United States Senators. Hea. John T. Bunch. Speaker of the Kentucky House of Representatives; Hon. Architeld Dixon; Jeseph Adams, Pres' to firmers' Bank; L. C. Dalkam, Pres' to firmers' Bank; L. C. Dalkam, Pres' to firmerson, Ky.; Hon. W. F. Parrett, Judge of the Circuit Court of the Fifteenth Judictal. John H. S. Johnson, Judge of Gourt of Common Fload. Indiana; Hon. Wm. H. Walker, Mayor; John S. Hopkins, Pres't First National Bank; and others, of Franaville, Ind., and many other sentiemen of position and prominence in neutocky and Indiana.

The farms (300 acres cleared and under califration), have been rented the present rear (1809) far Si2 per acre, money reat: hond for the rent have been deposited in the Farmers' dank at Hendersea, Ry., subject to control of the commissioners, and will be assigned to those drawing the farms. Reviol the capital price, 35.000.

TICKETS. CAN BE PURCHASED OF A THE STATE OF L. H. LYNE, Farmers' Bank Henderson, Kr. R. B. ALEXANDER, Commercial Bank, Louis-JOHN C. LATHAM. Pres't Bank | Morkinsville Hopkinsville, Kr JAS, L. DALLAM. Commercial Bank Paducal. Er B. G. THOMAS, Lexington, Kr W. E. TYLER, Owensboro, Kr jan13'69#

FLEMINGSBURG

WOOLEN MILL and am now putting every department in complete order, and shall make a large variety of siyles of Woolen (roods. I have been enasged in Manufacturing all my life, and will have none but first-class workmen who know their business. I will after the mill on the ist of May, when I hope to receive the patronage of this community. I have goods about, and see Setimetts, Tweeds, Castimere, the patronage of this community. I have goods as hand, much as Satinetts, Tweeds, Cassimered, Slied Cloth, Jeans, Finneys, Bed Blankets, Busgy Blankets, &c., to exchange for Wood. A am prepared to do country spinning at very low rates, make carpet yarn, stocking rate. 7, 3, 42 c. Wool carding done at the shortest notice.

My prices will be as low as the lowthe work as good as the best.

My prices will be as low as the lowest—and ...

may26wlm

T. W. GILLIS.

W. S. BEAUCAMP UNDERTAKER,

56. Second Street, - . - - MAYSVILLE, KY I will constantly keep on hand all sizes of Vara-ished, Velvet and Metalic exces. Funerals attended at any hour. I will sell as low as the lowest. MRS. M. A. BINDER'S

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Dress Trimmings & Paper Pattern Store. W. W. Cor. Eleventh & Chestant sta., Philade., Pa Dress and Cloak Making Dresses made to at with ease and clogance. The finest assortment of ladies' dress and clock trimmings in the city at the lowest prices. Orders executed at short notice. Embroideries, half's laces, ribbons, bridai walls, and wreaths, fine lowelry and fancy goods, iadies and children's furnishing goods, parazola, white goods, do. A perfect yearen of dress culting taught, price, $2.50, with chart. Patterns sear by mail or express to all parts of the Union.

TOP PRINTING

IN THE HIGHEST STYLE OF THE ART ALLE MATSVILLE EAGLE OF

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING AT THE MATSVILLE BAOLF ORIGIN.